Scandinavian Festival

Swedes, Norwegians, Finns and Danes from the entire metropolitan area are working now toward Scandinavian Festival, Friday through Sunday, July 22-24. Much of the behind-the-scenes work is being done in Finnish Cultural Center and The Swedish Club, both in Farmington Hills, as committees put together the ethnic-cultural music, song and dance, import items, crafts and foods for the three-day event. Kathryn Simo (above) puts another whipped cream and berry cake into the freezer that will be transported to Yack Arena in Wyandotte, as one of the offerings by the Finns. Connie Fosness (above right) looks over some of the Finnish imports from the cultural center's gift shop that will go up for sale with other imports from the Scandinavian countries.
