

A noted attorney, John Schaffer has his favorite Brooks Brothers black tie class ready for any occasion wife Sharon decides to call his attention to. Her dressy cocktail and dinner suit is white wool crepe complemented with bugle beads on the lapel. She already owns a similar one by the same designer, Jonathan Hitchcock, $575. Bonwit Teller.

A dynamic person with an incredible knowledge of art, Barbara Erb still prefers the soft, feminine image for special occasions. Her dusky turquoise, jacquard silk, two-piece dress trimmed with lace is by Carol Perez, $600. Bonwit Teller.

Mary Lee Fishman is organizer and vice chairwoman of Women's American ORT in the Detroit area. For formal evenings she decided to add glitz and shine to her appearance with Marc Bouwer's navy jersey cocktail dress with iridescent sequin top. Linda Dresner.

Photos by Gary Caskey, Deborah Booker

Sweater Purr-fect

The ultimate in casual fur sweaters designed in Paris, France by Claude Gilbert and manufactured by Harry Richer Furs. Hand knit English yarn with original contemporary designs in Fox or Coyote.

Matching knit hat or knit shoulder bag included! Casually priced under $2,000.00. Sizes 6 to 18.

If you buy a fur by the numbers, you might as well buy NUMBER ONE!

Claude Gilbert exclusively for chudiks

OF BIRMINGHAM

294 E. Brown Street
Birmingham, Michigan
(313) 647-1300

THE GOLDEN DAYS OF AUTUMN

S O M E R S E T M A L L
BIG BEAVER ROAD AT COOLIDGE, TROY
SUNDAY 12-5/MONDAY, THURSDAY, FRIDAY 10-9/OTHER DAYS 10-6