The program will be led by Gary Johnson. His talk is called "Corporate Travel Films."
The chapter is now celebrating the 25th anniversary of the American Association of Retired Persons, the nation's largest retiree organization.

The group sponsors a wide range of community public service programs, works to influence the enactment of local, state and national legislation of benefit to older Americans, and acquaint association members and other older citizens with what it offers.

Locally, the chapter sponsors the Tax Aide program and co-sponsors Health O'Rama.
Nationally the association has nearly 15 million members and estimates that it is growing at the rate of 1,000 new members each day.

The local chapter meets at 1 p.m. the third Friday of every month in the library. Members encourage older Americans to call Marianne Puhel, at 661-1173, to learn about the workings of the national organization and what it offers. Membership is open to all persons over the age of 55, whether retired or not.

MOODUSTERS, a group for singles over the age of 35, meets every Saturday in Livonia Activities Center, 15216 Farmington Road, for a dance party 9 p.m. to midnight.

Items gathered for auction

A committee for Bloomfield University School has set Saturday, Oct. 29, for the 25th anniversary of their Autumn Harvest Auction. Senator Margaret Chase Smith in tribute to the school and its 25th anniversary auction will act as honorary chairman.

The gala will be given in the Rensselaer Club atop the Fisher Building in Detroit. Auction volunteers have been busy since early spring organizing and securing items from New York designers Adolfo, Ralph Lauren, Iod and Liz Claiborne, as well as two round trip air line tickets to anywhere in the continental United States, and elegant service for 12 of Haviland China, an exquisite sapphire and pearl brooch and earrings, plus select items for every member of the family.

The auction begins at 5 p.m. For the next four hours guests will feast on hors d'oeuvres while enjoying an open bar and submitting silent bids. The live auction begins at 7 p.m. with auctioneers Lawrence and Ernest Dubouché. A special silent auction will be held after the live presentation, from 8-9 p.m., followed by an optional dinner.

The Bloomfield University School is an independent private school founded in 1956 to provide girls, grades 6-12, with a rich and challenging educational opportunity. Situated on a 10-acre site on Macleay Road in Birmingham, the school offers a fully-equipped yet intimate atmosphere to ensure individual attention.
For further information, donations or reservations, contact the school office at 644-5043.
