

Bluegrass comes to Livonia

The Bluegrass Country Music Festival will be held Sunday, noon to 6 p.m., rain or shine, organizers say.

The festival, sponsored by the Livonia Arts Commission and the Livonia Historical Commission in cooperation with the Livonia Cultural League, will take place at the Greenwood historical site, Eight Mile at Newburgh in Livonia.

Food, clogging, refreshments, square dancing, parking lot pickin' and continuous music will be available at a cost of $5 per vehicle.

The day's fare will feature Larry McDaniel, "The Arkansas Traveler" of WDET-FM radio, and includes continuous music by Michigan Consolidated Grass, R & L Bluegrass Express, Cactus Creek, and Dave Walz.

The annual festival is a fund-raiser for the visual and performing arts in Livonia.

The R & L Bluegrass Express will entertain at the Bluegrass and Country Music Festival in Livonia at 2 p.m. Sunday. Music at the festival is continuous from noon to 6 p.m.

Singing machines

Triah Clemons of Southfield (left), Jill Getto of Livonia (center) and Lori King of Warren are background singers on "Saturday Night Music Machine," a monthly music show that debuts on Channel 4 at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The half-hour program features local singers competing for "Entertainer of the Year" honors, which will be awarded in May 1984. Dominick Certo, also of Livonia, will be one of three contestants Saturday.
