The living/dining area (left) in one model is in taupe and cream accented with raspberry and plums. Among the amenities in the 124-unit development are a large patio or balcony, utility room with washer/dryer hook-up, carpeting, two-tiled baths and individually controlled heat and air-conditioning, $590-810 per month.

"Tandem Living" is the concept for this model at the new Strawberry Lane Apartments in Farmington Hills.

Each unit has two master suites, each with private bath and walk-in closet. It was designed to accommodate two people in shared rent economy.

The model, furnished by Perlmutter & Friewald, Interior Designers, is off Middlebelt, south of 12 Mile, Farmington Hills.

This and other furnished models are open 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily, until 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Builders and developers are The Fenton Company and FNMC Real Estate Corp.

Showing humorous side

Lois and Richard Kozlow have been traveling in this country, France and Honduras for about a year. These business and family-oriented trips, to visit galleries and welcome grandchildren into the world, gave Kozlow an opportunity to draw and sketch and paint. But, he said, he grew anxious to get back to his studio and paint — something he never tires of.

Kozlow is a man of charm and wit. These newest works show his light side without in any way making fun of his subjects.

The exact opposite — a strong statement on the dark side of life.

Schweyer-Galdo Galleries, 330 Hamilton Row, Birmingham, is open 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday.
