Time's waning for golfers

Time just keeps on slipping by, doesn't it?

Pretty soon now, you'll be staring out the window at work, wondering where the summer went (if you haven't already) and thinking about all the nice times you had when the weather was warm.

Then you'll remember, "Golf!" you'll scream, drawing more than a few curious looks from your fellow workers. You meant to send it in, but now it's too late.

Too late to register for the Observer & Eccentric Men's Golf Tournament.

WELL, IF YOU'RE reading this now, it's not too late. Not yet. So clip the coupon accompanying this story and send it with your check for $30, made payable to tournament director Gary Whitener, to the address listed.

The tournament is slated for Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 1-2, at Whispering Willows Golf Course, located on Newburgh just south of Eight Mile in Livonia. The 36-hole tourney is for golfers residing within the O&E coverage area (areas included are listed on the coupon).

Trophies and gift certificates will be awarded to the top finishers, both low gross and low net, in each flight.

Final date for entries is Saturday, so don't miss out. Clip the coupon and send it in, before you start your workmates with a sudden cry of anguish.

For the second straight year, the Farmington mens softball team from American Legion Post 346 (Graves-Walker) has won the American Legion Mens Softball State Championship.

High on Hughes

Nancy Hughes, a Farmington Hills native and a former star at Schoolcraft College, is an integral part of the University of Georgia women's volleyball team this season.

Hughes transferred to the Lady Dogs along with Schoolcraft teammate Karen Kelley after leading the Ocelots to a second-place finish in the Junior College National Championships last year.

"As a setter, Nancy brings stability to our offensive attack," said Georgia head coach Sid Feldman, whose team compiled a 41-12 record last season.

"Learning to set a quick offense will be important to have in her arsenal. I can already see her helping to continue the winning tradition here at Georgia," he said.

The Lady Dogs are 2-1 so far this season, winning impressively against traditional powerhouses Notre Dame and Michigan State.

double-elimination tourney in five straight beating Dearborn SUIT, Lansingberg, Ferndale, and Auburn Heights twice.

The tourney was played in Midland.

On Sunday at Allison Field in Redford, Farmington will take on the Ohio state Legion champions in the regional showdown. The time of the game will be announced at a later date.

The event, sanctioned by the Sportscare Club of America, is an amateur national competition. Serrano will compete in the Formula V class.
