CC ousted from state tourney

By Paul King
special writer
It was a rough week of soccer for Redford Catholic Central.
It started Thursday at Bell Creek Park as CC and Warren DeLaSalle battled to a 2-2 tie for the second time this season in a Central Division game played at Bell Creek Park.

goal, 20 minutes into the second half on a 25-yard free kick.
The Rocks, 9-4-1 overall, outshot Notre Dame 15-8 and missed three penalty shots as goalie Glen Soave kept them off the board.
STEVENSON 4, SALEM 0: The Spartans defending Class A champs, put a lock on the Lakes Division crown Thursday at Plymouth Salem as four different players scored.

and Joe Arwady scored two goals each Wednesday to lift Northville.

The Mustangs, who beat Franklin earlier in the week, 3-0, are now 10-3-3 overall. Franklin dropped to 9-9-0 overall.

GARDEN CITY 5, BISHOP GALLAGHER 2: The Cougars raised their overall record to 12-1 with the pre-regional win Friday at Grosse Pointe North.

Paul Pummill scored three times to raise his season total to 27.
Bill Trombley and Bill Hyde added one goal and one assist each.
CC outshot the Lancers 18-12.

BENTLEY 8, EDESEL FORD 0: Dennis Patchett scored in each half Friday night to lead the Bulldogs (8-3-4) to an easy home field win.

Other Bentley goal scorers included Bill Rowan, Jeff McLeod, Tony Pulice, Abe Yafal, Brad Mahalak and Rich Gregor.
Torin Gulewick added three assists and goalie Jeff Wilkinson, who played 60 minutes, preserved the shutout.
Bentley outshot the Thunderbirds, 33-2.

FARMINGTON 8, CLARENSON 0: The Falcons (6-5-2) advanced with the Class A prerogative win Wednesday behind senior Mario Sald's two goals and one assist.

Raiders outrun Franklin

North Farmington clipped Livonia Franklin in an NSL meet Thursday at Cass Benton Park, 26-31.
North, 3-1 in NSL meets and 6-3 overall, went one-two-three — Kirk Armstrong, 17:01; Eric Bennett, 17:20; and Ken Weize, 17:25.

Franklin's Gerald McDougall was fourth in 17:50.
North's next best runners were Jeff McCormick (18:08) and Mike Potter (18:54).

Franklin's girls, paced by Kelly Holzwart's first-place time of 21:39, beat North, 21-34.
Suzanne Hamblin was second for North in 21:41, while Beth Bryne took seventh in 23:32.

REDFORD UNION'S boys stayed atop the Northwest Suburban League (NSL) cross country race Thursday with a soggy 24-37 triumph over Garden City.
RU, now 4-0 in NSL duals, was led by Junior David Adkins, who finished to 14:53.

Heavy rains prompted race officials to shorten the Hines Park course.

Other RU finishers included Eric Buchanan, third place, 15:45; Eric Ross, fifth, 16:15; Dave Jaehin, sixth, 16:23; and Craig Bilinski, seventh, 16:31.
Dave Hornum was second for GC in 14:58, while teammate Jim Finetti placed fifth in 15:53.

RU's girls also won, 15-48, sweeping the first five spots.
Denise Durrer led the way with a 19:38. She was followed by teammates Janis Bilinski (19:46), Melly Mogielski (19:50), Kathy Adams (19:59) and Jenny Rutenbar (20:05).

Jenny Shroat of Garden City was sixth in 20:10.

IN THE REDFORD UNION INVATIONAL, last Tuesday, Farmington runners placed third behind first-place Dearborn Fordson and second-place Dearborn High.

Fortune, scored 17 points to offset the 17-point performance of Central's Sherry Strohs.
Their inside game hurt us," Brown said. "We played well, but didn't hit the basket."

The loss drops Farmington to 2-10.

CHURCHILL 48, HARRISON 25: Coach Gary Sine said it was going to be a long year, and he wasn't kidding. The Hawks lost their 11th straight as they made just nine of 35 shots from the field.

LADYWOOD 25, MARIAN 41: Livonia Ladywood came out blazing in the first and third quarters Thursday, and went on to rout the Birmingham contingent in front of a happy home crowd.

play of point guard Annette Ruggiero.
She made seven assists and enabled us to control the tempo of the game. She controlled the pace of the game," Baker said.

Regina's All-State center, Jolynn Schneider, scored 18 points.
Mercy is 9-4 on the year, while Regina falls to 8-3 (two losses sustained against Mercy).

W.CENTRAL 51, FARMINGTON 37: At least coach Bruce Brown could find some consolation in Thursday's drubbing.
They beat us by 30 points last time," the Farmington coach said. "So we've made some improvement."

Farmington's top scorer, Alyse
