

Office of the '80s opens

Twins Kenneth and Brian Tholen, 8, get a peek at the office of the future complete with business graphics, laser printing, automated drafting and electronic word processing. Visitors will have a chance to operate an IBM Personal Computer or an IBM Displaywriter. It's all part of the IBM "Computerfair" from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday through Friday and 9 a.m. to noon on Sunday in the main exposition area of the Hyatt Regency Dearborn at Michigan Avenue and Southfield Road. Open to the public; admission is free.

Enter the world of business computers at the IBM Computer Fair.

Find out how you can save time and money with the office system that's right for you. At the IBM Computer Fair, you'll be able to test the IBM Personal Computer, as well as the IBM Displaywriter. There'll be IBM people on hand specially trained in a variety of businesses. They will show you how to cut costs in day-to-day operations like billing, accounts receivable and word processing, to name a few.

This is also your chance to examine other IBM office systems including text processors and the full range of IBM computers, right up to the larger multiterminal systems. Ask about the special prices on selected IBM products at the fair.

So visit the IBM Computer Fair and start saving money the minute you come in. IBM
