

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.

What would a woman do without her morning Free Press?

There'd be no women's page to relax her through her second cup of coffee.

No shopping tips to help her plan her day.

No fashion hints. No recipes. No Action Line. And how could she live without Peanuts.

A woman depends on the Free Press to help her start the morning. Plan the day. Spend her money wisely. Discover bargains that she might have overlooked. Check out the best eating spots, movies, plays. Yep, a man's best friend may be a furry animal, but a woman's is her easy-to-read morning Free Press. It gives her so much more than just the news.
