seven dual meets during the season and was the top Charger runner over the past three years.

The Churchill captain was second at the WLAA and city meets, third at Schoolcraft and 30th in the state. His best clocking came against Northville (16:20) at Cass Denton.

David Adkins, Redford Union, junior: Adkins "hasn't even begun to reach his potential" according to coach Bob Ouellette.

Adkins won the Walled Lake Invitational, was named to Schoolcraft All-Invitational team and was selected to the All-Northwest Suburban League (NSL) squad. He was also chosen as RU's Most Valuable Runner.

"He is an extremely competitive runner," Ouellette said, "who is highly respected by other runners because of his determination and tremendous finish."

David Homann, Garden City, junior: Homann placed 32nd at the state meet this season, the second time he has competed in the Class A finals. Homann won eight of nine dual meets and was named to All-Invitational teams at Schoolcraft and Wayne. He was selected to the All-NSL squad and ran a 16:12 in placing first in a dual meet against Westland John Glenn at Hines Park.

Homann also excels in the classroom, where he carries a 3.63 grade point.

Jay Hunt, Westland John Glenn, junior: Hunt finished the season well, placing third in the regional with his best time of the year (15:48) and ending 14th in the state meet.

A first-team All-NSL member, Hunt won all seven dual meets he ran in and was named to All-Invitational teams at Schoolcraft and Redford Union.

Glenn coach Ed Phillips called Hunt "a runner who consistently performed well when the performance was needed. A team leader all year — he could be the best runner in John Glenn history."

ALL-OBSERVER GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

Katie Showick, Redford Thurston, sophomore: Showick's youth didn't stand in her way as she sped to the NSL championship and lost only one dual meet this season.

In invitational competition, Showick was fifth at the Schoolcraft and seventh at Redford Union. She was fourth in the regional and took 19th in the state meet.

"Katie was a hard worker who ran consistently well all season," said coach Bob Loke. "She comes from a family where running is a way of life. Her brother, Ken, and her father were both outstanding distance runners."

North tankers 5-0

Helen Sue Howard's last home swim meet was a memorable one.

The North Farmington senior ended her varsity swim career by winning two events and swimming a leg of the victorious 200-yard medley relay to lead the Raiders to a 100-53 win over Redford Thurston Thursday night.

Howard, along with Katie Harnden, Mary Manderfield and Marge Cramer, won the medley relay in 2:05.2.

Howard's time of 26.3 took the 50-free, and her 1:08.1 won the 100-backstroke.

The victory gives North a 5-0 league dual meet record. The team is 10-2-1 overall. If the Raiders place first or second in the league meet this weekend, they will win the Northwest Suburban League title.

Jill Menclley also won two events for the Raiders. She swam a 2:11.9 to win the 200-free and a 5:53.8 to win the 500-free. Harnden, another senior, won the 100-butterfly in 1:06.8.

Other winners for North were: Colleen Carey in the 200-individual medley (2:19.0), Marge Cramer in the 100-backstroke (1:13.0), and the 400-freestyle relay — Carey, Amy Montette, Jennifer Rowe and Suzette Greenberg — in 4:04.8.

It was the final home meet for Manderfield, Harnden, Howard and co-captains Judy Kettenstock and Laura Detzel.

The league meet will take place Thursday and Friday at Thurston.

FARMINGTON HARRISON swimmers lost a tough meet to Plymouth Salem Thursday, 91-81.

Melissa Joy won two events for the Hawks. She swam a 2:06.5 to take the 200-free and a 5:40.4 to win the 500-free.

Diana Radtack won the 50-free in 27.3, and Kim Hart took the 100-backstroke in 1:17.9. Sheila Hennessey amassed 157.6 points to win the diving competition.

Salem got two firsts from Laura for the Raiders. She swam a 2:11.9 to win the 200-free and a 5:53.8 to win the 500-free. Harnden, another senior, won the 100-butterfly in 1:06.8.

Other winners for North were: Colleen Carey in the 200-individual medley (2:19.0), Marge Cramer in the 100-backstroke (1:13.0), and the 400-

Coach resigns post

An enthusiastic man with a good sense of humor, Kaestner said "I have to pay respects to my staff who treated us great."

"I can't go out without mentioning Herb Osterlander, who has been my assistant coach for 10 years," said Kaestner. "And Bob Armstrong, who coached our linemen until he got out four years ago, and Roger Frayer (Livonia Stevenson's athletic director) who coached with me."

Kaestner came to the Livonia district in 1980 after serving as an assistant at Auburn Heights Avondale. He coached for five years at Whitlitt Junior High in Livonia and was an assistant coach at North Farmington along with John Herrington (Harrison's head coach) under Ron Holland.

In 1987, Kaestner became the head coach at Brighton High School, but returned to Livonia the next year to start Churchill's program.

"I never would have gotten the Churchill job if it hadn't been for Ron Holland," Kaestner said. "And Bob Bentley (Bentley's AD) gave me the chance. He hired me. And Larry Joiner (Churchill's AD) gave me the guidance. And George Lovin (Franklin's AD) helped me only early."

cross country

Ellen McCarthy, Farmington Mercy, junior: McCarthy's top showing came in the regionals at Royal Oak Kimball (19:34). She enjoyed a good outing at the state meet as well, finishing 21st (20:14).

Other accomplishments include three wins in the three dual meets she ran, a fifth at the regionals and an eighth in the West Bloomfield Invitational. She was picked to the All-Catholic League squad.

Laurie Rick, Farmington Harrison, junior: Rick had a long list of solid performances this season, capped by placing 30th at the state meet.

"Laurie's assets as a runner are her very competitive spirit and the high standards which she strives to attain," said coach John Schumacher.

Runk's record included a third in the WLAA meet, fourth at Schoolcraft, fifth at Redford Union, seventh in the regional and 11th in the Oakland County meet. And don't overlook a 3.80 grade point average.

Pam Eldridge, John Glenn, junior: Eldridge "started slowly this year due to illness," said assistant coach Jackie Schomer. "She came on strong over the course of the year. She showed lots of guts in many races."

Some of those "guts" races include a pair of fifth at the 1983 WLAA regional meet, a 10th at the state meet, a 10th at state meet (19:59) and was a state qualifier in the two mile in track as well.

Laura Grazulis, John Glenn, junior: Grazulis' best came in the regional meet when she placed second with her season's best time (19:45). She was a consistent finisher in the top four at invitationals and dual meets, including a third at the NSL meet, and a 4th at the state finals.

The "team leader" was labeled "the best competitor amongst the women's team," said assistant coach Schomer.

Karen Opp, John Glenn, sophomore: This sophomore ran like an experienced veteran, winning top honors in four dual meets and placing first in the Bobby Crim Road Race in the 14-15 age category.

An All-NSL team member and a selection in invitationals at Wayne and Redford Union, coach Ed Phillips called Opp "a tremendous sophomore talent and the hardest working member on the team. Opp broke 20 minutes both against Garden City (19:54) and at the state meet (19:56).

Susan Tatigian, Livonia Stevenson, junior: In seven major events, the worst Tatigian placed was sixth. At state meet she placed 35th (20:30).

Tatigian won the Spartan Invitational, was second in the city meet, third at Schoolcraft, fourth at the WLAA meet and the Redford Union Invitational, fifth at the Shrine Invitational and sixth at the regionals.

Her efforts earned her Stevenson MVP honors.

Kristen Schultz, Livonia Churchill, freshman: Schultz showed considerable talent in her rookie season, placing third in the regional, eighth in the city and WLAA meets, 10th at the Redford Union Invitational and 34th at the state finals.

"She has a great deal of potential to be a very good runner in the next three years," said coach Dave Westover.

Schultz's best time came in her third-place finish in the regionals (19:56).

Julie Recla, Churchill, senior: Recla was Churchill's top runner over the course of the season, winning all five dual meets she competed in and capturing titles at the Livonia city meet, Schoolcraft Invitational, WLAA meet and at the regionals. Recla was third at the Redford Union Invitational and placed 50th at the state meet. Coach Westover called Recla "a standout performer for four years."

She was the team captain and a two-time All-State runner.

Dorene Dudek, Livonia Churchill, senior: Dudek's season's best came at the regionals, where she placed ninth (20:11). She was also third in the city meet and was ninth at both Schoolcraft and the WLAA meet.

Dudek was "a dependable performer for three years whose competitive desire will be missed," said coach Westover.
