INK SPOTS

The performance by the Ink Spots at Somerset Mall, originally scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 27, and then postponed to a later date, has been rescheduled for the original date. For the fifth straight year, the Ink Spots will sing at the Holiday Kick-off, in two free shows, at noon and 3 p.m., despite construction work going on at the mall in Troy. Peg DuBois, Somerset Mall's managing director, said the program was moved back to Nov. 27 after many complaints from the public and merchants about the change.

OPEN HOUSE

The Westland Chapter of SPERSQ.

SA Inc. will hold a get-acquainted Open House at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 29, at the Plymouth Elks Lodge No. 1780, BPOE, 41700 Ann Arbor Road (west of Haggerty Road), Plymouth. Quartets will perform and guests will be invited to join in group singing. A film presentation will explain the many facets of the society. For more information, call Larry King in Farmington Hills at 477-7499.

DIRECTS REVIVAL

Charles Nolte, who adapted "A Christmas Carol" for Meadow Brook Theatre last December, also will stage this year's revival of the famous Dickens classic, which opens a four-week run at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 1, on the Oakland University campus near Rochester. Performances will run through Sunday, Dec. 25. For individual reservations, call 377-3300. For group orders, call 377-3316.

COMEDY CASTLE

The December schedule of attractions has been announced for Mark Ridley's Comedy Castle at John LaFrey's, 4616 N. Woodward, Royal Oak. Marc Schiff, from "Late Night with David Letterman," will perform Wednesday, Nov. 30, through Sunday, Dec. 4. Mike Binder from Birmingham, who has been seen on the TV show "Oz," Dec. 7-11; Thom Sharp, from the "Half-Hour Comedy Show," Dec. 14-16 and 21-23; and Dave Coulter, from Hanna-Barbera cartoons, Dec. 28-31. For reservations, call 949-2123.

AT FANNY'S

Slurder is appearing Mondays-Saturdays through Dec. 3, at Fanny's in the Troy Hilton Inn. The group performs Top 40 music for listening and dancing.

Join Us This Thanksgiving
For A Traditional Sumptuous Feast At The Fabulous Mansion At Pine Knob.

Make this Thanksgiving one you'll never forget. Dine with us on the finest of Old World and classic American cuisine in one of Michigan's most magnificent mansions, specially decorated to bring back the warmth and joy of holidays past. Celebrate our re-opening with us by selecting from our extensive menu of authentic and traditional holiday dishes, expertly prepared by our skillful chef. And, on the Sunday after Thanksgiving from 12 noon till 7 pm and every Sunday thereafter, we'll be giving a Renaissance Food Festival, a brunch where the selection of foods changes from midday fare to evening repast as the day grows on.

At The Mansion at Pine Knob, lunch and dinner are served Tuesday through Sunday; take 1-75 to exit 89. For Thanksgiving Day reservations call 625-0700. Let's make this the kind of special holiday we can all be thankful for.
