

GARDENERS ALL - Mrs. William G. Milliken (center) Lady of Michigan and a garden enthusiast, spoke on ither the Good Earth? before the state meeting of Women's National Farm and Garden Association in Moyflower Meeting House in Plymouth Thursdoy, Pictured with her are Mrs. Jack Ehlinger (left) of Port Huron, new state president for the organization, and Mrs. J. Phillip Wernette of Ann Arbor, outgoing president: (Observer photo by Vince Witek)

Make World Our Garden, Mrs. Milliken Urges

It's possible to control pollution and restore America's beauty, and the women who love that beauty must play a big role, believes Mrs. William

The world must be our garden. the first lady of Michigan told a state meeting of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association in Plymouth Thursday.

"It is within our power to

F'ton LWV Officers Elected

Mrs Gilbert O'Gawa was named to a second term as named to a second term as president of the West Bloom-field-Farmington area chapter of the League of Women Voters during the chapter's annual luncheon meeting

Newly elected officers are Mrs Mervill Hamburg second vice president. Mrs Joel Warren Ireasurer, and direc-tors Mrs Edward Esbrook. Mrs David Russell. Mrs Stan-ley Rosen and Mrs William Haase.

Haase
Officers serving another term are Mrs Irvang Friedman, first vice president. Mrs Ted Simon, secretary and directors Mrs Fred Maldaver and Mrs John Gahagan and Mrs. John Gahagan.

Program ideas for the chap-ter include the publication of two booklets. "Know Your West Bloomfield Area." and "Know Your Farmington Schools."

Schools

The League chapter will continue action for unification of governments in Farmington, county home rule for Oskland County a city form of government for West Bloomfield actitities in West Bloomfield.

Proposed budget for 1970-71 s $2,995.

Montessori Classes Set

The Montessori campus pre-school at Mercy College of Detroit will offer a summer session for three, four and five-year-olds from July 21 -August 13. Registrations will be accepted until June 1. Write or call 531-7820, ext. 311, for a benchure.

HEARING PROBLEM?

Dial 272-2986 15651 W. McNichols restore beauty and live in harmony with nature. But we need a massive change in atti-tudes.

Our national objective cannot be realized until we re-order our prinrities and realize that bigness is not necessarily goodness and quantity is not necessarily quality."

THE GOVERNOR'S WIFE, long a garden club enthusiast and in recent years a student of landscape gardening, admitted that some cherished American institutions might be trampled if we are to place first—a new ethic that thinks

We Slipped A Stitch

Seamstresses who read in our May 20 issue of about Mrs. Emma Saley and her new sew-ing methods found the wrong telephone number in the story on page 1c.

ing methods found the wrong telephone number in the story on page 1c.

The correct number for reaching Mrs. Saley is GA 2-364. We regret any inconvenience the mistake may have caused.

We are caretakers of the most spectacular land in the world—she will all when the world—she will all on the world—she will be wil

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL BURDEN

Burdens Mark 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bur.

den. formerly of Plymouth celebrated their 9thn wedding anniversary May 2 at a reception in Fremon Formouth
The Burdens moved from Plymouth to Fremont
The couple were married in the Methledist parasmage in Northville in 1929. Burden was been in Plymouth with else
a grandfuldren and five greatpoint in the proposition of the properties of the proposition of the proposition of the properties of and believes in terms of stew-ard-hip of our resources. "The ideas of rugged indi-stituatism and limitless growth may have to give way in some Mrs. Multiken gugerseld that ugtimess should be as unac-ceptable as crime, perhaps with criminal penalties leved against this expensible for what she called "esthetic pollu-tion".

SHE PARTICULARLY N
struck against the use of billboards on highways of the gion.

boards on highways of the land "I think it's high time we lifted the hilboard curtain," she declared, "I retuse to between bloom of the bloom of the land of the l who are aware of what needs to be done and those who are willing to get out and do it." she said.

She said suggested that individual action will have great impact on what she called the "manageable" environmental problem.

"We have more influence than we realize." she told the women than we realize." she told the women

"We gardeners tend to become so busy growing our primitizes that we fail to see the ugliness around us.
"We should try to establish in every current of the land the maximum level of beautyand this should he as necessary as acquiring material goods."

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E.
Knapp of Drake Road, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Christine loy, to Richard E. Hachter, son of
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hather of Detroil. The bride-elect is a graduate of
Our Lady of Mercy High School. Her fionne is a sophamore at Lawrence Institute of Technology, studying construction engineering. No wedding date has been set.

JUDITH JAHNCKE

Observer Newspapers

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Jahncke of Wooddale Road, Birmingham, an-nounce the engagement of their daughter, Judith E., to Clayton Thomas Rumble, to Clayton Thomas Rumble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Rumble of North Marklawn Arenue, Formington. The birde-elect will graduate from the University of Wichigan next December, with a BA in elementary education. Her fiance, a graduate of North Formington. High School, will receive a BA in psychology from the U-M in June. An August wedding is planned.

SANDRA DAVIS

Mr. and Mrs. Loran Davis of Pontiac annaunce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra K., to David H. Catherman, son of Mrs. Eleanor Catherman of Farmington and the late Howard Catherman. The Howard Catherman. The bride-elect is employed in public relations. Her fiance, a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and a member of Kappa Phi Alpha Internity, is a physical education teacher and a coach at Farmington High School. A June 12 wedding is alonged.

"I CAN SELL YOU CARPET CHEAPER THAN ANYONE ELSE AND I CAN PROVE IT TOO!"

CALL 533-4418 584-5687

MOBILE FLOOR COVERING

light on Women

They Plan Weddings

MARION DOANE

MARION DOANE

Mr. and Mrs. Ion Doone of Notholine Avenue, Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion Alice, to William Vonderuelde, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C.
Vanderuelde of Muskegan.
The bride-elect attended Albion College. Her fiance is a 1969 graduate of Albion and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, He is a teacher in the Aipna Tau Omega trater-nity. He is a teacher in the John F. Kennedy Junior High School in St. Clair Shores. The couple plans to marry Aug. 15 and will honeymoon in Spain.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hendee of Powers Road, Formington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kristin, to Harry Extine, son of Mrs. William P. Extine and Shalle and Sha Heights, Ohio. The bride-elect is a graduate of far-mington High School and Miami University in Ox-ford, Ohio. She is em-ployed at Addressagraph. Multigraph in Cleveland. Her fiance, also a gradu-ate of Miami University, is employed at William Ex-line, Inc. in Cleveland. The wedding date is July 18.

LINDA SCHNEIDER

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas W. Schneider Jr. of Ypsi-lanti announce the engagelanti announce the engage-ment of their doughter, Lindo Gail, to William Anders Trestrail, son of William B. Terstrail of Bea-trice Avenue, Westland. The bride-lett graduated from Ypsilanti High School and attended Eastern Michigan University. Her fiance is a graduate of Franklin High school and a innor at FMI where he in junior at EMU, where he is affiliated with Phi Mu Al-pha Sinfonia fraternity. He is employed by Kroger Bakery. A November wed ding is planned.

PAMELA HALTOM

Mr. and Mis. Thomas Haltom of Cindy Avenue, Hollom of Cinity Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pamelo Jean, to Douglas B. Anderson, of Woodland Hills, Ann Arbor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson of Inkster. The bride-elect gradu-ted in April from the University of Michigan School of Music, and is offiliated with Gammo Phi Beta Soroity. Her finance is a 1987 graduate of the U-M music school and operates the school and operates the Douglas Anderson advertising agency in Ann Ar-bor. A June 6 wedding is

PRE-INVENTORY CLEARANCE

it's your opportunity to choose nationally-known fine quality furniture and home accessories at truly exceptional savings! Sorry, no layaways. All sale merchandise for immediate delivery > plus . . . a limited number of bedroom and dining room pieces!

*SOFAS! *TABLES! *CLOCKS! *CHAIRS! *LAMPS! *BEDDING! *DECORATIVE PILLOWS! *ACCESSORIES!

CONVENIENT TERMS, OF COURSE!

Open Monday through Friday 10 AM to 9 PM - Saturday to 5:30 PM

PHONE 422-8770

Largest Ethan Allen Dealer Learthside

15700 MIDDLEBELT ROAD, North of Five Mile Road in Livonia