and good friendship comes out in the film, which is one of Hitch's most equitable, least threatening and thoroughly enjoyable works. Jessie Royce Landis and John Williams co-star.
Rating: $3.20.

"40 Pounds of Trouble" (1963), 4 p.m. Sunday on Ch. 9. Originally 106 minutes. TV time slot: 120 minutes.
Tony Curtis and Suzanne Pleshette star in this bouncy and entertaining film — the first by director Norma Jewison, who would go on to direct such pictures as "In the Heat of the Night," "Fiddler on the Roof," "Jesus Christ Superstar" and many more memorable works. A Disney and locale adds to the frivolity, as do co-stars Phil Silvers, Larry Storch, Howard Morris and Stubby Kaye. Children especially will get a kick out of this one, but adults won't tire from the pacing, either.

Rating: $2.95.

"The Song of Bernadette" (1942), 11:40 p.m. Wednesday on Ch. 9. Originally 150 minutes.

Jennifer Jones made a smashing film debut as Bernadette, the peasant girl who experienced a vision of the Virgin Mary near Lourdes, France, in 1858. Jones won a best-actress Oscar for the role, a feat that represents the Motion Picture Academy's faith in Jones, who was 24 when she portrayed the 14-year-old Bernadette. Jones is convincing but the film, directed by pioneer filmmaker Henry King, drags. Charles Bleckford, Vincent Price and Lee J. Cobb co-star.
Rating: $2.70.

"Bells of St. Mary's" (1945), noon Friday on Ch. 9. Originally 126 minutes. WARNING — TV time slot: 120 minutes.
Bing Crosby is back as Father O'Malley in the sequel to "Going My Way," the most popular film of 1944. Ingrid Bergman co-stars as a nun trying to raise money for a parochial school, but the most curious element of this film are the sparks of forbidden love that fly between father and sister. Surely these sparks are unintentional but, all the same, they heat up an otherwise-drab film.
Rating: $2.85.
"To Catch a Thief" (1955), 1:40 Saturday night on Ch. 2. Originally 106 minutes. WARNING — TV time slot: 105 minutes.
So Cary Grant will be 80 shortly. He was 51 and, like co-star Grace Kelly, on top of the world when he starred in this Alfred Hitchcock film. It was also during filming in the south of France that Kelly would meet Prince Charming — er, Rainier. All that good fortune

Steelcase announces student art competition

Steelcase is inviting all Michigan university-level art students to enter Steelcase Student Art Competition I, the first student art search Steelcase has conducted in the nation.
Steelcase, headquartered in Grand Rapids, is a leading designer and manufacturer of office furniture.
The artwork chosen will be displayed in the new Steelcase showroom in Southfield, said Jeff Block, architectural designer liaison for Steelcase in Detroit. "This will provide architects and designers an opportunity to see the variety and quality of Michigan student art."
The Steelcase Detroit office is requesting that Michigan students submit 4 1/2 mm color slides of artwork in four categories: sculpture, ceramics and pottery, prints and mixed media. The deadline for entries is Friday, Dec. 16.
The ENTRY judged "Best of Show" will be awarded a $500 scholarship. Top winners in each category will receive $300 scholarships; second-place winners in each category will receive scholarships of $150.
Block said that entries in the sculpture category can be in any medium, including marble, glass, wood and cast polyester.
The print category could include screens, lithographs or photostats, with a size limitation of 3 feet by 5 feet maximum, 8 inches by 8 inches minimum.
Ceramic and pottery pieces should be high quality, decorative pieces with a finish and scale appropriate for an office environment.

The mixed media category could include oil, acrylics, watercolors, pastels, and should be suitable for hanging on fixed walls or system furniture panels, according to Block.

"A panel of Michigan artists and designers will review the slides and determine which art selections qualify for further consideration," Block said. Actual artwork will be submitted to the judges at the Steelcase showroom in Southfield on Jan. 2.

ON JAN. 12, the selected artwork will be displayed at an open house at the Steelcase Detroit Showroom. The students, Michigan architects, designers, facility managers and Steelcase clients will be invited. Awards will be presented on that day.

Steelcase Detroit Student Art Competition judges include Robert Kidd, noted artist and owner of Robert Kidd Gallery in Birmingham; Charles A. Lewis, curator of education, Detroit Institute of Arts; Joyce Bromberg, senior interior designer at Steelcase; and Terry West, Steelcase manager of architect-designer programs.

Students wishing to submit slides of their art to the competition may send as many entries as desired to Steelcase Inc., 3000 Town Center, Suite 80, Concourse B, Southfield, Mich. 48075. Attention: Art Competition.

All entries must be postmarked no later than Friday, Dec. 16.

The entry judged 'Best of Show' will be awarded a $500 scholarship.
