WEEKLY MENU SUGGESTIONS

A small ham or half of a ham will be a good investment for a small family. A thick slice may be baked with brown sugar and mustard or in milk, one may have some very thin slices broiled for breakfast, then the end of the bone may be boiled and bits left over, put through the meat grinder and used as sandwich filling, in a white sauce on toast or macaroni.

SUNDAY—Breakfast: Buttered toast, coffee cake. Dinner: Baked ham, corn bread. Supper: Chocolate nougat cake, onion sandwiches.

MONDAY—Breakfast: French fried toast. Dinner: Pork steak. Supper: Potato salad.

TUESDAY—Breakfast: Wheat cakes, maple syrup. Dinner: Roast veal. Supper: Baked apples and cream.

WEDNESDAY—Breakfast: Orange, oatmeal and cream. Dinner: Porterhouse steak. Supper: Stewed brown bread.

THURSDAY—Breakfast: Muffins. Dinner: Broiled ham, creamed cabbage. Supper: Cottage cheese.

FRIDAY—Breakfast: Poached eggs on toast. Dinner: Escalloped fish, cabbage salad. Supper: Fried oysters.

SATURDAY—Breakfast: Bacon, toast, doughnuts. Dinner: Hamburger steak, fried onions. Supper: Baked beans, tomato sauce.

Chocolate Nougat Cake.

Cream one-fourth of a cupful of butter, add gradually one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, one beaten egg; when well mixed add two-thirds of a cupful of milk, and two cupfuls of flour sifted with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder; add one-half teaspoonful of vanilla. Filling: To two squares of melted chocolate add one-third of a cupful of powdered sugar and one-third of a cupful of milk, cook until smooth. Cool slightly, and add to the cake mixture. Bake in layers and use filling between layers and on top. Onion Sandwiches.

Chop one small, mild onion, mix with pepper, salt and a teaspoonful of lemon juice with a teaspoonful of oil. Use as filling for buttered bread sandwiches.

Roast Veal.

Season a fillet of veal with salt and pepper and put in a pan with a chopped carrot, onion, a bay leaf, three cloves and a tablespoonful of butter. Bake one hour in a roaster, basting every five minutes. Remove the meat to a platter, add a little water, simmer five minutes and pour the gravy over the meat.

May be to other soups

The soup attracts in some great agony. Enkindle generous ardor, feed pure love. Reget the smiles that have no crust. Be the sweet presence of a good diffused. And if diffusion ever more intense, shall I join the choir invisible whose music is the gladness of the world.

FOOD FOR THE FAMILY.

A tasty pie which may be made in a short time and is most satisfactory if one enjoys bananas, is prepared as follows:

Banana Pie.—Mix one-third of a cupful of sugar, three tablespoonfuls of flour, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of salt and the yolks of two eggs, slightly beaten. Pour on one cupful of scalded milk and cook in a double boiler fifteen minutes. Cool and add one-fourth of a cupful of this cream, three-fourths of a tablespoonful of lemon juice and a large banana, cut into slices. Turn into a pastry shell previously baked, cover with a meringue, using the whites of two eggs, two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and a flavoring of lemon extract.

Cold Slaw.—Cut a small, hard head of cabbage into halves and shred very finely. Soak in cold water until crisp; then drain, dry and add the following dressing: Mix one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of mustard, one and one-fourth teaspoonfuls of sugar, one egg, slightly beaten, two and one-half tablespoonfuls of melted butter, three-fourths of a cupful of cream and one-fourth cupful of vinegar. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until the mixture thickens; strain and pour over the cabbage.

Diced Tongue en Casserole.—Brown two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan, add two tablespoonfuls of flour, and when blended add the pint of stock; cook until smooth. Put two cupfuls of diced tongue in a casserole and pour the sauce around it. Season with salt and add two tablespoonfuls of minced green peppers, two and one-half dozen minced olives and a tablespoonful of kitchen bouquet. Cover tightly and place in a moderate oven for thirty minutes. Serve from the casserole.

Stuffed Peppers.—Parboil peppers after cutting off the tops and removing the seeds and pulp. Fill with seasoned bread crumbs, melted butter, a few chopped nuts. Fill the peppers and bake until tender.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Mt. Clemens—John G. Clark, of Toledo, visited his daughter, Mrs. Richard Wilkins, at her apartment in the Barron block, fell down the stairway and died soon after of a broken neck.

Toledo—For the first time in the history of this city, dancing parties will be permitted in the city. The two new buildings, the Emerson and Jefferson, have gymnasiums which will be utilized in that manner.

Manistee—An analysis of oil found at the 1,100-foot level of the Michigan Oil Development Co. well No. 2 by the company's geologists shows it to be about 47 per cent petroleum. It was said at the company's offices.

Detroit—Automobiles took a toll of 69 lives for the first three months of 1924, six more than during the same period of 1923, according to a report made by the accident and investigation department bureau of the police department.

Chelsea—The village of Chelsea was threatened by fire, but with the assistance of fire fighting equipment from Ann Arbor and Jackson, the flames were halted after two warehouses, valued at $10,000, and $2,500, and a barn placed at $1,500, had been destroyed.

Battle Creek—The city commission here has acquired 45 acres of land adding 100 acres already owned just north of the city, on the Battle Creek-Belleuve road, and plans are under way for the establishing of an 18-hole public golf course. The purchase of the land was made primarily to protect Battle Creek's water system.

Lansing—The Michigan training school at Lapeer will have four new units to take care of the 500 feeble-minded children now on the waiting list. This will bring the population of the Lapeer school up to nearly 2,000. The State administrative board has asked for estimates on cost of construction of the four housing and school units.

Lansing—Sitings of the north shore of Grand river, just west of Lansing's municipal power plant and dam, by Charles W. Foster, was stopped by an application in district court for a restraining order on behalf of the city of Grand Rapids, city attorney, declares Foster by filing in the river bed at that point, would seriously impair the flowage and reduce the capacity of the power plant.

Ann Arbor—Men sentenced to jail in Washtenaw county will be put to work on the highways of the county under an arrangement between Judge George W. Sample and the county board of supervisors. The men will be returned to jail each night and sent out to the road work each morning under the control of deputy sheriffs. Prisoners in the past have been sent to the house of correction in Detroit.

Three Rivers—One hundred black walnut trees and several Norway spruces have been received by the Abiel Fellows Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution from the State Conservation Department. The trees will be planted along the route of M-18, the Kalamazoo-Grand Rapids trunk line, in St. Joseph County. Each of the trees will be named for some of the county's old star veterans of the World War.

Potosky—Crooked Lake has yielded the body of Daniel Bragg, drowned Oct. 23, 1923, as he was attempting to rescue Hobart Park, his companion in a duck hunting expedition. Park and Bonshing, the latter a 22-year-old Indian, were taken from a boat as they were attempting to recover two ducks they had shot. Bonshing reached shore safely but plunged in again when he noticed Park was having difficulty. Both were drowned.

Lansing—The State has rounded out its highway finance program for the current fiscal year by placing a $20,000,000 bond issue with the Detroit Trust Co. The bonds were awarded for a premium of $100 and an interest rate which will cost the State an average of 4.26 per cent. The issue brings the total highway bonded indebtedness to $40,000,000, leaving $9,500,000 of the $50,000,000 issue to be expended in the next fiscal year starting July 1.

Ann Arbor—Student supervision of college social affairs was held to be better than the chaperone system, by the deans of men of more than 25 colleges throughout the nation, in their session here. The general consensus of opinion appeared to be that no matter how hard the chaperones might try, they were not as capable as the students themselves, who were learned in such affairs and thereby better able to detect any undesirable influences.

Grand Rapids—Highway construction records for Michigan are being smashed by G. P. Scharf, Muskegon, in his construction of the Grand Rapids-Lansing concrete road. Scharf's objective is to grade, cut and fill the poor right-of-way, prepare portions of the old roads and to lay in 20-foot pavement 47 miles long within 12 months. Operations are being carried on 24 hours of the day. For 14 miles, the stretch upon which work is now concentrated, high-candled electric lights illuminate the place at night.

It's Easy to Pay For a Chevrolet

Everybody wants an automobile. Everybody can pay for a Chevrolet. Everybody can afford to own a Chevrolet.

You can buy a Chevrolet just as you buy any other important necessity. Not one family in a thousand pays cash in full for a home. They make a substantial down payment, then pay off the mortgage with what they used to pay for rent, plus other savings.

A Chevrolet can be bought just as you buy a stationary home. It earns its own way and you ride while you pay. It is the best paying investment any family can make because it provides transportation, saves time and makes everyone your playground, bringing health and happiness to the whole family.

There is a Chevrolet dealer near you. Ask him to show you the different models and explain how easy it is to get, use and pay for the one you want.
