Missions Accomplished

A group of determined women and their "big brown monster" can chalk up another mission accomplished.

The women are members of the Mission Club in St. Michael Catholic Church, Livonia. The monster is a huge box at the church that for two years has been receptacle for, among other donations, thousands of Betty Crecker coupons.

And the mission is a big one-acquisition of a high-powered microscope with a whopping $5,000 coupons and presculation of the equipment to Dr. John Rogers. Livonia obsteries work in the hospital at Belize in the British Honduras.
