Livonia Knights Sold To Masters

The dining spot that used to be called "Livonia Knights Inn" is now "Masters."

New owners—and active managers—are cousins Bob and Nick Masters. They purchased the restaurant at 29703

Seven Mile, Livonia, on Aug. 12 and have been making changes ever since.

Company president is Nick Masters, 32, a Farmington resident and former systems analyst for Ford Motor Co.

Bombshell At 24 Karat
Millie Vernon, the singing bombshell, will headline the 24 Karat Club, 1600 Telegraph, for the next two weeks, starting Monday, Sept. 16.

The tall redhead is an adept exponent of the blues-ballad genre and is a graduate from the great pre-rock era of big bands. Her forte is the strong emotional ballad.

Mills has appeared on the Jack Parr and Merv Griffin TV shows and has appeared recently in top clubs in London, New York and Miami Beach.

Her act includes imitative excursions in mining Pearl Bailey, Diah Washington, Billie Holiday, Joe Stafford and Judy Garland.

Sharing the bill with Miss Vernon are Josie Young, one-time singing star of the Field Pollard; Harry Harris, the 14-year-old original partner of Jimmy Durante; and the Lenny Schick Quartet providing

Jazz, Art In Mixture

The sound of today's jazz will mingle with contemporary art when the Detroit Institute of Arts presents a series of free Tuesday evening jazz concerts in its South Wing sculpture court.

All the concerts are open to the public and begin at 7:30 p.m. The Howard Lucas Trio will be featured on Sept. 17.

Sept. 24 will bring the Hal McKinney Quintet with Gwen McKinney, vocalist; Jack Brokensha's Quartet will be heard Oct. 1.

A Tuesday evening visit to the museum can be an adventure in sight as well as sound, since all "gigs" are free. Art Institute remains open without charge to the public until 9:30 p.m. that day.

The jazz concerts are co-sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation in cooperation with the Detroit Federation of Musicians.

Vice-president and general manager is Bob Masters, 38, of Royal Oak, who has been in the restaurant business since he was 11. Bob opened his own restaurant in Pittsburgh from 1960-66 and managed Bloomfield Canopy from 1966-68.

"We've extended the dining hours later into the evening, and we're open on Monday now," said Bob. "They haven't applied for a Sunday liquor permit."

"We have a complete new menu, with Bill Dianas as chef. It's more extended. We call it Thursday."
