TWAS SAID:-

That one city farmer met another city farmer carrying a paint pot and wearing a number of jackets and an overcoat. Said the first and an overcoat. Said the first city farmer, "Is see you are all set for something but what's the idea of the coetume". Said the second city farmer. "I'm always careful to carry out instructions" that I don't understand. And the man told me that I couldn't expect good results with this paint with less than several coats, but three is all I could get on. It'll have to do."
