FARMINGTON OPERATORS HONORED BY COMPANY

Farmington, May 5.—Letters of commendation have been written to Sadie and Daisy Cairns of Farmington because of the meritorious service given the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. The Farmington young women were two of eight to be honored in this way. These awards are made for meritorious service not demanded by duty, but for devotion to duty and public service in the interest of the patrons of the company.

The commendation was given the Farmington operators because of their prompt and intelligent action at the time of the holdup of the Farmington State Savings Bank on November 19, 1924.

SHELDON HOWARD

Miss Iona Sheldon of Clermont, Fla., was united in marriage to Ray J. Howard, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis N. Howard, Friday, May 1, 1925. It was the continuance of a romance which started some two years ago while Mr. Howard was wintering in Florida with his folks. The couple were married by Rev. Sayles of Plymouth and were attended by Miss Luella Howard and Duane Sayles.

They will reside in Farmington on the Howard fruit farm.

IMPORTANT TO WATER USERS

The council at its regular meeting Monday night passed a resolution requiring the clerk to send water bills to owners of property where water is used. This action was deemed necessary in order to protect the village against loss. It has been found that renters who remain on premises but a short time quite frequently leave without squaring the water account.
