DASHED HER HOPES
 The young man produced a small square box from his pocket. "My dear," he said, "I have a birthday present for you. I don't know whether it will fit your finger or not, but try it." "Oh, Jack!" she interrupted, blushing vividly. "Why, I never even thought—" Then he opened the box and produced a silver thimble, and the room became suddenly cooler.

Turn About
 The clergyman held up his hands in horror. "Stephen," he said, "the last time I met you you made me the happiest man in the parish, because you were sober. But today you make me the most miserable, because you are drunk." "You—a parson," said Peter. "Today it's my turn to be happy."

THE SAME THING
 Sybil—it's no use denying it, Maud, it was too dark for me to see who it was, but I saw some young man kiss you in the garden. I'm ashamed of you. Maud—I don't see why you should be. I've often seen George kiss you. Sybil (engaged to George)—Yes, but I allow nobody but George to kiss me. Maud—Well, nobody but George ever kissed me.

Many a True Word
 "Papa, what is a low-brow?" "A low-brow, my son, is a person who likes the funny papers, snappy stories, girl shows and the like and doesn't mind saying so." "And what is a high-brow, papa?" "A high-brow, my son, is a low-brow who won't admit it."—North Shore Bulletin.

 Right here in our city there are dozens of old homes which need remodeling. If you own one of them, we invite you to come to our office and let us show you how to make it more comfortable by making a few alterations and additions.
 Our book "Old Homes Made New" will offer many suggestions and we'll gladly cooperate with you to obtain maximum beauty and utility at minimum cost.
