"The Constant Wife" is next for the Players

The Farmington Players has cast its winter production, "The Constant Wife" by W. Somerset Maugham, a comedy set in the late 1920s, and rehearsals are under way.

Members of the cast include Anne Burton, Laurie Pokowski, Emily McSwaney, Bob Battistoni and Carl Orsini, all of Farmington Hills; Mary Ellen Ward of Wixom; Maggie Elshaus of Walled Lake; Larry Novess of Dearborn Heights; and Robert Myers of Howell.

Director is Ellie Jorgensen, assisted by her husband Walt, and producer is Jack Grulke, all of Farmington Hills.

The play will be presented in 13 evening performances over a four-week period in the Farmington Players Barn, 32332 West 12 Mile Road, beginning Friday, Jan. 27, and continuing through Feb. 18.

Tickets and ticket information may be obtained by calling the Player's box office, 535-8822. Bill Monticello is ticket chairman.

Registration planned for OCC

Regular registration for the 1984 winter semester at Oakland Community College will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 3 and 4, according to an alphabetical schedule.

Classes for the winter semester officially begin at 8 a.m. Jan. 5.

Students may register at any one of the following OCC campus locations: the Auburn Hills Campus in Auburn Hills (853-4200); the Orchard Ridge Campus in Farmington Hills (471-7500); the Highland Lakes Campus in Union Lake (360-3000); and the South-east/Royal Oak Campus in Royal Oak (987-5700).

Billing recourse

Consumers have rights under federal law when doing battle with credit card companies or department stores over a billing error.
The Fair Credit Billing Act says that if a billing error of $50 or more is discovered on a charge account statement, and if the consumer writes to the company about it, the company has to respond to the letter within 30 days.
