

Murder suspect tested

Psychiatric testing has been ordered for a 38-year-old Troy man charged with stabbing his wife to death Dec. 28 in their home on Jamaica street.

List of classes offered at OCC

"Continental Cuisine," "Kayaking" and "Arabic" are among the non-credit short courses being offered this winter at the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College.

For a complete listing of short courses and/or registration information, call the Office of Community Services at 471-7510.

The non-degree and leisure time courses are offered during a variety of time periods throughout the winter. Registration will take place up to and including the first class meeting.

Minimal course fees are charged. Senior citizens, however, will be admitted to one short course per semester with a 50 percent discount.

he understands the charges against him and has the ability to assist in his legal defense.

District Judge William Bolle last Monday granted a motion for the forensic exam, which was requested by Buckley's lawyer, Walter Meyers.

Preliminary exam — to determine that a crime was committed and there's probable cause that Buckley committed the crime — has been postponed pending psychiatric testing.

By law, the evaluation must be completed within 60 days.

Meyers declined to comment on how Buckley is reacting to his situation and what the basic thrust of a legal defense might be.

Buckley, already arraigned on an open murder charge, has been held without bond in the Oakland County Jail since Dec. 29. Meyers speculated Monday that Buckley would be transferred for testing within a few days.

BUCKLEY allegedly stabbed and slashed his wife, Elaine, 37, repeatedly with a knife during an argument shortly after Mrs. Buckley arrived home from work.

Mrs. Buckley was an office manager for the Lambrecht Realty Co. Death was attributed to shock and hemorrhage due to multiple stab wounds, said an investigator for the Oakland County Medical Examiner.

A neighbor called police after being alerted to the attack by the couple's daughter, Denise, 17, police said.

Denise told police the argument between her parents moved to a bedroom, where she heard her mother scream. Denise reportedly observed her father with a knife in his hand before she fled, police said.

Joseph Buckley was arrested in the house by police without a struggle. A knife believed to be the murder weapon was recovered at the scene.

Elaine Buckley died in William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak about 7 1/2 hours after she was stabbed.
