DAR names her "GoodCitizen"

Karla Kish, a senior at Harrison High School, has been named a "Good Citizen," and will be sponsored in the Daughters of American Revolution's annual program by Quakertown chapter. The high school cheerleader was chosen on the basis of leadership qualities, dependability, service to the community and patriotism. She received the official DAR Good Citizen pin and certificate, and a copy of Washington Landmark from her sponsors. She is now an automatic contender for the title of Michigan DAR Good Citizen.
