Redford, Livonia Scrap Heads Class A Schedule

There could be an interest-ing sidelight to Wednesday evening's collision between Livonia's Hubert Realty and Redford's Wonderland Lanes in a Class A baseball battle at Livonia's Ford Field at 8:30 p.m. It's not just that Hubert and Wonderland have been two bit-

Wonderland have been two bit-ter rivals over the years that makes this game something special.

But there's a good chance that the two managers-Bill Ziegler, of Hubert, and Ri-chard Berryman, of Wonder-land,—could wind up more than-trying to outrnamuve; each other just with decisions on who pitches, who bats, etc.

other just with decisions on who pitches, who bats, etc.

IT SO HAPPENS that besides managing. Ziegler and Berryman are regular pitchers on their respective teams. And, each-has done well-respective teams are regular pitchers on their respective teams. "It just depends on the situation whether I pitch against Berryman's guys Wednesday," Ziegler said Friday. "You can be sure of one thing, I'll be ready." Berryman agreed. Both admit that managing puts them on the spot when they're out on the mound. "When do you take yourself out?" Berryman, a veteran of several years of pitching in these parts, laughed. "I have to be careful. I don't wast one of the other pitchers saying the parts, laughed." I have up some runs and hits while you keep yourself in under the same circumstances."

To ease their mental loads, but ziegler and Berryman have pitched well in their mound appearances this season.

THE GAME WAS decided quickly when Leland Blerke slapped a homer with Mark Carrow, who had disubled aboard in the first inning. From then on Wonderland kept adding to its lead as Jerry Pompa and Terry Rothwell provided the big blows. Pompa had two doubles and knocked in three runs. Rothwell drove in three tallies with a pair of single.

Ironically, Ann ignored an old bowling tradition in attaining her perfect game—a tradition that dictates you shouldn't throw your linab ball if there is a split up on the adjoining lane. When Ann stepped to the line Wednesday night! Hazel Aldred, bowling on the adjoining pair of lanes, had left up the 5-7, and cautioned Ann Waut, till I clear it Ann. But Ann didn't wait. She approached the line as if nothing had happened and let up the condition of the pocket for the record breaking count.
