Power Middle School football team, and he was quarterback for the Farmington High School freshman football team (his team was league champion); racquetball, gold, sailing, and swimming. He also likes to design and draw, which will help him in his college courses as he seeks to obtain a degree in architecture and engineering. Wright will pursue his college prep studies in high school and will continue to serve in a leadership capacity in Troop 179.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS for the evening was given by Rep. Brotherton, R-Farmington. Charge to the Eagles was delivered by J. Fred Monroy, the former scoutmaster of the troop.

Each of the Eagles were given framed proclamations of their achievements by Farmington Hills Mayor Williams and by Brotherton.

One of the guests of honor for the event was Larry Anders of the Clinton Valley Boy Scout Council. He presented the troop with a unit award, which was accepted by Suh.

John Hovanessian is chaplain for the troop. Thomas Krupka is the troop's committee chairman, and Bill Egypt is the troop's advancement chairman.
