Several area clubs are sporting new officers for their club year. Forest Park Garden Club installed its new officers at the home of Mrs. Helen Moorehouse on Tredwell Avenue. She served her famous homemade wine made from grapes grown in her own yard. Mrs. Moorehouse is an excellent horticulturist.

The new officers for the Forest Park Garden Club are: Doris Freeman, president; Lillian Sitter, first vice president; Carolyn Maddox, corresponding secretary; Rita Woodard, treasurer; and Cathy Zellner, recording secretary.

HILL AND DALE Garden Club of Farmington installed their new officers at the June tea on their regular meeting night. The old and the new board members get acquainted with their new jobs and the other board members at a joint board luncheon.

The joint board luncheon was held at noon in the home of the new president, Mrs. Arthur Lynn on Pillsbury.

Miss Fischer To Travel For Phi Mu

Marianne Fischer of Farmington has been appointed to serve as a field secretary for Phi Mu. Miss Fischer's new position was announced recently in Indianapolis by the sorority's national collegiate vice-president, Mrs. Harry J. Henry.

Miss Fischer is a 1966 graduate of Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., where she served as president and membership director of her Phi Mu collegiate chapter.

At Marshall, Miss Fischer was vice-president of the undergraduate alumni association and a member of the Panhellenic Council. She also served as Panhellenic rush coordinator.

Drive. The new officers include: Mrs. Robert Wichman, first vice president; Mrs. John Utley, second vice president; Miss Marie Lou Seldon, third vice president; Mrs. Ward Orman, secretary; and Mrs. M. J. Byrne, treasurer.

The Franklin Knolls Women's Club held a luncheon for their new and old members of the board in the home of Audrey Turmalia. New officers are: Mrs. Daniel Potter Jr., president; Mrs. Marine Zapiec, first vice president; Mrs. Clayton O'Dell, second vice president; Mrs. Edward C. Hess, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Mahalie, recording secretary; and Mrs. John Turmalia, treasurer.

MEETINGS OF THE Franklin Knolls Women's Club will resume in the fall and if you are interested in becoming a member, watch for their membership drive in October.

The Farmington Musical's new officers, installed at their annual luncheon meeting in Topinka's Country House, are: Beverly Nolestine, president; Elenora Skilman, vice president; Marjorie Truitt, recording secretary; Carolee McDaniel, corresponding secretary; and Anita Mallette, treasurer.

City Seeks Suggestions

FARMINGTON Since last fall, the City of Farmington's Beautification Committee has been collecting suggestions from the five suggestion boxes placed throughout the community. They are located in the City Hall, the District Library, Frank's Nursery, Chamber of Commerce and the Community Center.

Those suggestions with a name and address will be answered by the committee. All suggestions are carefully read by the committee and either acted upon, referred to the proper resource person or are considered for the future. Many of the suggestions come from the Farmington Township and have been referred to the Township Beautification Committee.

The beautification committee hopes that residents in the city will continue to use these
