The farmington

Wednesday, July 8, 1970

Second Front Page

Page (F) 3A

BUNKER HILL — A lot of work went into this float which is a replice of the fort at Bunker Hill. The sign on the fort includes the names of American patriots who died in that hattle: Cal William Prescott Doctor Joseph wagon are copies of drawings and etchings by Revere used to publicize the revolutionary effort in Europe.

American Dream Is Relevant But Still Unfulfilled -- Beasley

The American Revolution, started almost 200 years ago, has yet to be won, said Judge William Beastley of the Oak-land County Circuit bench, while speaking to residents of the practice of the property of the THEN BEASLEY focused his attention on the meaning of the Declaration of Independence and its relevancy today.

"We celebrate July 4 because on this May, 194 years ago in 1776, America adopted although different in the color of their skins, choose to try to live side by side in harmony with mutual respect for each other.

"They are the principles of a nation where law and order with justice must prevail so the state of the state

IN HIS HISTORICAL discus-sion. Judge Beasley selected Continued on Page 5A

the fermington antanprise Balisanuar

Editorial Office 23523 Farmington Road Farmington, Mich. Phone 474-6225

Home Delivery Service Newsstand . . . per copy. 15c Carrier . . . munthly, 50c

Phone 474-8737

Published èvery Wednesday and Wookend Published by Observer Newspa-pers. Inc. 271 South Main Street Pymouth. Michagen. 48170 Server Sunday Philip M. Power. Publisher Entered as Second Class Marie at the U.S. Post Office. Plymouth, Mchagan Michigan
Address all mail subscription change of address Forms 3579 to Box 200, Plymouth, Michigan,
40170

125 Youngsters Learn More About Heritage

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY'S

HISTORY DISPLAY: The above historical display on "Massachusetts Bay Colony's Contributions to American Independence" was located on the grounds of Waoddale Elementary School for the July Fourth observance of Kendallwood I and Colony Park subdivisions, Included was a replica of the Declaration of Independence, a map of Boston in 1774, Copley's portraits of Paul Revere and Sam Adams, a picture of the lantern hung in Christ's church and photo of a statue of Kirig George being

STORES

LIVONIA MA'L

19424 Middlebelt Road

At Seven Mile

At Seven Mile

4 Middlebelt

534-0868

REDFORD

13955 Telegraph Road

At Schoolcroft

531-6460 WESTLAND 3523 West Warren across from Hudson's 721 - 1810