

Boisford elects staff president

Richard Knight, D.O., has been elected president of the professional staff at Boisford General Hospital in Farmington Hills.

Knight received his bachelor of science degree from Wayne State University in 1951. In 1958 he earned his D.O. degree from the University of Osteopathic Medicine and Health Sciences College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery in St. Louis, Mo.

Currently, Knight is a member of the board of trustees for the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons (MAOPS). He is also the chairman of the MAOPS insurance committee.

Knight is a general practitioner. He has a private practice in Farmington Hills with his associate Dr. Max McKinnis. Immediate past president of the Boisford staff.

Scholarship is awarded

Ryan Rizzo

Ryan S. Rizzo, a student at the University of Michigan, has been selected to receive a one-year tuition scholarship under a grant program sponsored by the Michigan Road Builders Association (MRBA).

Rizzo attended high school in Farmington and received his bachelor of science in civil engineering degree from Michigan State University in 1981.

In addition to attending school, he is a transportation engineer with the consulting firm Goodell-Grivas Inc. of Southfield.

Through his work at Goodell-Grivas, Rizzo has been involved in a variety of highway traffic safety projects. He currently is working on a National Highway Traffic Safety Administration study entitled "Restraint System Usage in the Traffic Population."

The MRBA scholarship program was established to assist students pursuing careers in civil engineering. This is the

Media seminar planned

A seminar for individuals and organizations who want to learn how to work more effectively with the media will take place from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, March 10, at the Madison Heights Library.

The seminar will provide information on writing news releases and public service announcements, making media contacts, and getting radio and television exposure.

The seminar is designed for volunteers and professionals who want to learn more about publicity techniques. Cost is $10 per person.

To preregister and for more information, write Marilyn Russell, 1549 Windemere, Madison Heights 48071 or call Sue Baker at 435-2739.

Coaches honor sports doctor

Dr. Murray Deighton, chairman of the family practice department at Providence Hospital, Southfield, was honored by the Michigan High School Football Coaches Association at their recent statewide meeting.

Deighton, a Farmington resident, was presented with a plaque and a lifetime honorary membership in the coaches' group.

His "hard work, effort and dedication to the development of high school football in Michigan" was acknowledged.

Deighton has missed only two scheduled football games in 25 years as sports physician to Farmington and North Farmington High Schools — once to attend a funeral and once for a hospital stay.

Parks get public hearing

Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission will conduct a public hearing at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday to receive citizen input on the submission of grant pre-applications to the Department of Natural Resources for development of several parks projects.

The proposed projects include a boat facility and camping development at Groveland Oaks County Park in Groveland Township near Holly, as well as a camping development at Addison Oaks County Park, Addison Township near Oxford.

Comments may be addressed at the public hearing or mailed to Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission, 2800 Watkins Lake Road, Pontiac 48054.
