

Library's Friends get Clas-y

Show for kids to be staged

The Friends of the Livonia Public Library will present two performances of the children's production, "Free to be You and Me" by Clas Players Ltd. at the Livonia City Hall auditorium 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m. Saturday, March 10.

Tickets are available at $1 each at Noble Library, 3201 Plymouth Road, and the Sandburg Library, 3010 Seven Mile. Remaining tickets will be sold at the door the day of the performance.

The program was first presented on TV by actress Mario Thomas. The Livonia presentation is an adaptation of the Thomas production. The costumed performers, through mime, poetry and music, go through stages of growing up. They show that boys and girls can be what they want to be, that everyone cries, that everyone should do housework, that boys are not necessarily noisier than girls. The theme is that no one should be stereotyped.

IN ONE SEGMENT, the Clas Players act out the story of "Dudley Pimpin." Some young schoolchildren lip over a sandbox and a boy gets blamed for it. He stays after school, meets with the principal and insists he did not do it. The boy cries and feels bad about expressing this emotion because he believes that boys are "stissies" when they cry. The principal makes him understand that everyone should cry when there is that need. The principal then brings out his flute, plays it and the two walk off together as the players sing "It's All Right to Cry."

The Clas Players are four Livonia college students, Ron Moon, Lisa Sielski, Darlene Stanfill and Jim Thorderson. They have been performing shows primarily in schools throughout the metropolitan Detroit area.

Their directors are Patricia Hutchison and Jeff Vells. Both are also currently directing a musical production at Bentley High School.

Vells recalls he was in elementary school when he first met Hutchison at St. Paul Presbyterian Church in Livonia where she was — and still is — music director. Their interest in music and the performing arts kept them in touch with each other. After much discussion and work, the Clas Players performances became a reality for them last year.

Hutchison handles the direction of the troupe while Vells oversees the business and production end.

Millionaire party set

Women of North Farmington plan their big fund-raiser of the year, a Millionaire Party, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, March 24 in American Legion Hall, 31775 Grand River.

After the party last spring, Farmington Salvation Army, Farmington Advisory Council, Farmington Community Center, Meals on Wheels and Community Living Centers received gifts of money from the proceeds.

Members are collecting the hundreds of prizes that are necessary for the event, most of which come from area merchants. There are also many door prizes being gathered for the party.

Tickets are $10 each if purchased in advance, or $12 at the door. Tickets include stake money and a late night buffet. A cash bar is available.

Reservations are being taken by Jackie Greit, 474-2581, and Ariene Sukamp, 851-4915.

FACTORY SELECTION

STEINWAY & SONS

OVER 75 OF THE WORLD'S FINEST PIANOS

For two days, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 13 and 14, Hammell Music offers a factory selection of more than 75 Steinway pianos at the Livonia store, 15630 Middlebelt Rd., two blocks north of Five Mile Rd. These instruments have been shipped directly from the Steinway factory in New York. This event will feature the largest number of Steinways ever assembled at one place in the United States. Included in this selection will be a number of Steinway pianos manufactured in Hamburg, West Germany and shipped here especially for this event. Whether you are looking for a baby grand for your living room or a concert grand for the stage, you won't have a problem finding the Steinway you always dreamed of owning. To assist you in making your selection, Mr. David Robert, Steinway and Sons senior vice president, will be in attendance at this factory selection event.

Hours will be 9:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. both days.
