SAILING SINGLES is now accepting membership applications for the season. The metro area club is designed especially for active, single people, ages 21 and up, who have a particular interest in sailing and windsurfing. Scheduled activities include day, evening and weekend cruises on the Great Lakes, as well as picnic sails and windsurfing on the smaller lakes.

Social events are scheduled throughout the year to provide an opportunity for members to get better acquainted. Educational programs often are included to sharpen sailing skills.

Inquiries are taken by calling Sailing Singles, 455-5683.

FARMINGTON HILLS SENIOR ADULT CENTER is now accepting reservations for four trips planned this spring.

At 11 a.m. Sunday, May 6, seniors are invited to brunch in Southfield Senior Center, then proceed to Southfield Civic Center's Ice Arena to see a matinee performance of "Southfield Ice Company '84."

A trip to Ireland is planned for May 18-31. And a trip to Traverse City for "Cherry Blossom Time" is planned for May 16-18.

A get-away weekend is set for June 7-9 in Holiday Plaza, Holiday, in Michigan.

Musicians launch fund drive

The North Farmington Band and Orchestra will conduct a fund-raiser through April 30 in conjunction with the Cookie Factory in 12 Oaks Mall.

The groups hope to raise money by having friends make a purchase at the Cookie Factory, using a coupon available at the Cookie Factory in the Thursday, April 5, Farmington Observer, and from any North Farmington Band member. The Cookie Factory will donate 10 percent of each purchase to the band and orchestra.

A drawing will be held April 30 from all coupons received. One-pound boxes of Gourmet Cookies will go to three winners.

The cookie fund-raiser was initiated when much of the Florida citrus crop was killed in bad weather, wiping out the musicians' annual orange and grapefruit sale.

ville, Ind., to see the Bob Hope show there.

All trips are package-priced. Reservations are taken during the center's regular hours, from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the senior facilities in Mercy Center complex, on 11 Mile Road through Gate 4 east of Middlebelt.
