Ready to dine, Roman style

Latin students in Patricia Tompkins classes donned Roman garb before dining on traditional Roman fare, with their fingers while reclining on cushions. Beginning Latin students at Farmington High School came dressed as plebeians. The more advanced students were identified by their costumes emulating mythological characters. The most advanced students came to the dinner as Roman senators or citizens of the empire. Music for the occasion was provided by Latin students who are also members of the school band.

Harbinger performs at Music Hall

Harbinger Dance Company will celebrate spring and the opening of baseball season with a concert and gala afterglow at 8 p.m. Saturday, April 28.

The highlight of the concert, one of the company's five appearances on the Music Hall Dance Series, will be a performance of "Home." Harbinger will take-off on the sport of baseball. After their slides, steals and strikeouts, the Harbinger dancers will join guests for wine and dessert in Music Hall's lobby.

Tickets are $25 per person. For reservations and ticket information, call Harbinger Dance Company at 477-7016.

Class for expectant parents set

The Oakland County Health Division will offer a series of eight Expectant Parent Classes beginning Wednesday, May 2 in the Southfield office of the Health Division, 37725 Greenfield.

Classes run 7:30-9:30 p.m. and are taught by public health nurses. There is no charge for attending the series of classes, but participants are asked to preregister as enrollment is limited.

Topics will include maternal physical changes, good nutrition, growth and development of the fetus and the baby, labor and delivery, infant care and parenting.

The health division advises enrollment as early in pregnancy as possible. To enroll, call 858-1280.

Free starter trees offered to children

Continuing Arbor Week tradition, English Gardens of West Bloomfield is offering free starter trees to children who the store when accompanied by a parent.

Since 1873 when J. Sterling Morton founded the holiday by urging his fellow pioneers to plant trees in the Nebraska plains for soil protection, fuel and building materials, children have planted trees to mark the occasion.

Arbor Week is celebrated April 22-28 in Michigan, with Thursday designated as Arbor Day.

All children visiting the store during Arbor Week can pick up a starter tree which come with planting instructions. This offer is good while supplies last. Children who receive a tree automatically enter their school into a drawing for a free large tree planting, compliments of English Gardens.

English Gardens is a retail nursery featuring gardening products and house plants, maintained by a staff of degree horticulturists and master gardeners. The store is located at 6370 Orchard Lake Road at Maple.
