Suburban Life

Monday, June 25, 1984 04E

Rintamaki takes Eagle Award

Jan Richamaki is the 111th member of Bey Scott Troop 116, composed of scotts in the West Bioomfield Farm-ington Hills area, to achieve the rank of Ergie, scottung's highest honor. The 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rin-tamaki of West Bioomfield received the Eagle Scott Award in North Farm-ington High School, where he is a soph-omore.

the Eagle Scoul Award in North Farmington IIIs School, where is a sophic figure of the second and the second school's symphony band and Pep Band. SINCE JOINING Troop 116 in 1979 Rintamaki has served that troop as quartermaster, patrol leader and sen-ior patrol leader. Ho is now part of the Leadership Corps and an Ordeal mem-ber of the Order of the Arrow, an hon-orrary camping society. He has hike the Chief Pontine Trail, the Potawatomi Trail and earned the Historic Trails Avard. In 1987, as a top fund-raiser for his troop, he earned the George Decourty Avard, samed in honor of Troop 116's founder. Two special scouling activities are on this summer's agenda. At the end of June, along with his

B'nai B'rith hosts

Tribute Dinner

Entertainer Joey Russell will be the guest speaker for the B'nai B'rith Ein-atein Lodge and chapter Tribute Dinner In Behalf of the State of Israel Bond

The event begins at 6 p.m. Sunday, July 1, in Adat Shalom Synagogue and will bonor Louis Kay of West Bloom-field, recipient-elect of the State of Is-rael's "New Life" award.

Russell, recently returned from one of his many trips to Irrael, will give a firsthand account of his most recent visit and the progess being made with the proceeds from Israel bond sales.

Son of an Orthodox rabbl, he is a founding member of the Ambasadors Society of Trustees, whose members are purchases of $10,000 or more of La-real bonds, and a longtime Izrael bond chairman in southern Connecticut, where he lives and has participated in more than a dozen bond missions to Is-rael.

Russell has performed in major nightchos and hotels throughout the county. A frequent dats guest at the Friar Rossis, he has been fontured with Victor Borge, Alan King and David campaign.

scoulmaster Robert Allison, assistant scoulmaster Joseph Lucas and nine other troop members, he will attend Philmont Scout Ratch in Cimarron, N.M. for a 10-day backpacking experi-

N.M. for a 10-day backpacking experi-ence. Then in July, Troop 118 returns to Machinac Island for its 32rd consecu-tive year as the Governor's Honor Guard, a record which is believed to bo unsurpassed in the state, It will be Rhi-tamakit's aith summer averying as a member of the honor guard, a service that is of particular imperiance to him. A something-new for the troop this year in Machinac is that all members will be wearing neckerchief designed by its 1118 Lagiels Scoul. The the troop a subscript and the princide at the troop a subscript and the scouts throughout the year for all troop activities.

RINTAMARIS community-service project, a regulate for the rank of Ea-gle, was initiating, planning and au-pertains the construction of an 86 robs Famington Solol Distance part of door Education Nature Center, a solo property, supplements an existing trail on the southern end of the school grounds.

grounds. The new trail passes by trees about 25 years old, a woodchuck den, some unusual tree patterns and rocks of in-

15 years one, a New York of In-terest. Planning the trail required a general survey of the overall area and identifi-cation of school property boundaries. Sightings were made from survey stakes and mapped aerial pholos of the site. School property lines were marked and the cract trail was planned to include specific objects of interest for school children.

Jan Bintamaki, the 15-year-old who built the nature trail that is part of Farmington School District's Out-door Education Na-ture Center, is now an Esgle Scout. The first year the trail was open it was fourced by every thind grader in the district.

and Sim Yarnike. Tickets are handled by Rubin and Lois Pines.

Jack Seiderman is lodge president, ad Hermine Hirsch is chapter presi-nt. and here and a street

Livonia Town and Country Chapter of Profossional Societaries International in-day, Jime 36, in the Livonia Ion Members vito secretaries from entromoting commun-tions to holp celebrate the group's 30th anni-bit art.

Mapping the trail clearing and re-moving brush, making three railroad-ite steps on grade portions, then paying the entire path with wood chips encom-neted the product the entire path with wood chips encom-parsed the project. Ten emlisted and supervised scouts worked 45 bours on the trail. Rin-tannaki put in 39 houry before it was completed in time for school's opening last fail. Before the school's opening last fail. Before the school's opening that does every third grader in the dis-trict tourde the trail as part of their outdoor-education christeniuum. As a personal thank your from Doug-las Cooper, science coordinator for the district, Rintanaki was given a pholo album and log of the entire project.

The Farmington Observer

AS & SOPHOMORE in advanced col-

AS A SOPHOMORE in advanced col-lege proparatory classes, Rintamati ju interested in business management, computers and Law, with hopes of en-tering University of Michigan to pursue his chosen career. Toward this end be works part time mowing lawns and packing school equipment and supplies. The National Henor Society member was given an album of congratulatory letters from local, state and national leaders during the Court of Honor cere-monics.

leaders during use some Maxistant Scoutmasters Peter Evan-gelista and Wayne Failis, both past Ea-gle alumni of Troop 116, coordinated the evening program and the reception which followed the formal ceremonies.

Gold retires with accolades

Claudis Ratiner Gold, a resident of Farmington Hills now completing ber third and final term as Michigan State Pablic Alfairs Representative for the National Council of Jewish Women (NCHW), Greater Detroil Section, retires from that post with Tributes and proclamations have come to her from fow, James Blanchard, Detroit Mayor Col-man Young, and Erma Henderson, president of De-troit City Council. Blanchard extended his "appreciation for the counters contributions made to improve the quali-ty of life in our state and her willingness to utilize her tailcuts so that others may benefit." Young stated, "As the Michigan State Poblic Af-fairs representative for NCIW, she has advocated natters on behalf of women, minorities, children, the handicapped, mentally ill, the poor and others."

THE DETROIT City Council gave Gold a Testi-ionial Resolution "in tribute to her deep commit-

Fraternity celebrates with music, music, music

Delegates and music representatives from Delta Omicron International Music Fraternity collegiate and alumnae chapters will congregate at Kent State University in Ohio Aug. 2-6 for its Diamond Jabileo Conference.

Jubico Conterence. "There will be music morning, noon and eve-ning," asld Helen Bishop, a Farmington Hills resi-dent who is a past international president for the deal who is a past informational president for use frateruly. Bishop will be sitending the conformer, repre-senting the northwrest Detroit contingent, along with Mary Ann Piletie, president of Zeita Apha Chapter, Cherrie Leadbeter from Redford; Mary Abott and Meddle Provencher, both from Liveola; and Eleanor Peets, a resident of Farmington. Renowrood planist Gract Johannsen, a national patron of the fraterulty, will give the Welcome Concert.

patron of the fraterulty, will give the welcome Concert. The Delta Omicron Foundation has commis-stoned a work for organ and plane by Robert El-more, a national patron from Philadelphia, which will be premiered by plantst Phyllis King and oc-ganist Ellin does. The Collegiate Concert will be performed by col-legiates from various chapters. Performers in the Alumpas Concert will feature a flute ensemble from Mismi University, Ohio State University and University of Choimatai, The 'Rose and Gray' humpes will feature be Young Kim, of Secul Korea, who did her gradesite study al Mannee College of Missio and Concert heri-ters.

study al Manice College of Masic and Qaria Bar tata. As original kit of Astronical agardisence, an score homover highlights, has been yittige | 244 Alpha alumnas of mairs (beirot) for the or-ference. Data Construct formised in 1867 at Cherne Collegian or the score of the score of the score collegian or the score of the score of the score collegian or the score of the mathematical information is driven by Plates, in colling her being of the score of the score of the score colling her being of the score of the score of the score colling her being of the score of the sco

Secretaries invited to dinner meet

Property attact internation in all and a surger on the surger of the sur

-

ment to the community of Metropolitan Detroit, as evidenced in her many contributions to public ser-vice." Gold served on the board of Trustees of Jewish Family Service and was a member of the Mayor's Task Forceo ne Hunger and Malourition, 1978-82. She was appointed by former Gov. William G. Milliken to two terms on the Advisory Committee of Juvenilo Justice and served as chairwoman of that committe's legislative subcommittee. She was also erroritive director for Alliance for Mental Health Services, a non-profil organization dedicated to the preservation and advancement of mental health in the public sector. During her tennre as public affairs representa-tive, she was also an involved member of Adat Fahlom Synagogos's hoard of trustees and presi-dent of its sisterhood, 1981-93.

Jacobsons

 \mathbf{X}_{α}

Can Express* Carp.

Noolds Grates Adams

winner

PUSH DURANT

Farmington Hills artist Marge Slock walked arcsy from the Visual Arts Association of Livonia's (VAL) opting show with the first price in offic extended "Choir Jo?" Sho se-cepted the award during a re-ception given for the artists by the show's sponsore. Livonin Cultural Leegue. Her award winning petiting is now on display, with other neard-win-ning works. In Livonia City Hall fobby and will remain on which the heigh June Sciech-ia a member of both VAAL and Fernington Artisto Club.