

WWI Vets Set Apple Bud Sale

Members of Barracks 1152 World War I Veterans will be selling apple blossoms in Farmington City and Township and in Livonia on Sept. 20 and 21.

Proceeds from the sale will be used for financial assistance for aged veterans.

Apple blossoms are used for this annual sale because they

It's back to school and back to work for many of us. Vacation over for a while. We still have another week during the holidays which is being reserved for skiing and. Our summer was a bit hectic as usual.

MANY OF our neighbors had a wonderful time from all reports. Just to comment on a few —

The folks out Peppermill way did a variety of things. For example, the Jim Harsanyi family took a trip to Williamsburg and then had a long weekend of camping. The Walt Bothwell folks also did some camping in Canada and were away during one of those week-long hot spells of 90.

The Don MacLennan folks also took a trip out the Canadian way. The slir was to be cooler there or so they say. The Jack Weber family went north to Mullet Lake and while up in Northern Michigan visited the Lee MacCallum family who have a summer home on Conjell Island just outside Cedarville, Mich.

The Steve Sandbothe folks were at Central Lake outside of Traverse City. The Jerry Ehlers took three weeks or so to go to California. The Bernie Goetzke family joined the Jack McManis on a trip to Cincinnati. The Paul Payton family were joined by their son, Gil, and sister, and brother-in-law, Ann and Edward Blikle of Youngstown. These folks went to Montreal (naturally visited the fair), on to Quebec and then to Ottawa. Now here's one for the books. The Roger Belanger family of Quail Hollow have really taken to camping. Earlier in the summer the folks went up to Washington State and then just recently went to Hoelt State Park at Roger City.

While registering, they were informed that they were the 40,000th campers to come to the site and then the festivities started for them. They were honored guests of the Chamber of Commerce. There was picture-taking, radio interviews plus about 31 gifts from the local merchants, dinner at the Roodstock in Alpine plus many other doings at the camp site. Congratulations to our friends and neighbors.

GET OUT your date book, for all organizations are in full swing. For instance the Women's Council of St. Fabian's had their first meeting last Monday and president for the 1968-69 year is Agnes Burk; vice-president, Barbara Adams; Connie Martin, secretary; and Roberta McClintock, treasurer. On Oct. 14 the girls will go to the Consumer Power Con-
