Hart delegates swallow bitter pill

staff writer

SAN FRANCISCO — In Michigan the Hart delegates may have a tougher time adjusting to Walter Mondale's nomination; as Democratic presidential, candidate han be Jackson delegates.

"You support the winner. It's not every man for himselt," said Joel Fergusco, state coordinator for the Rev. Jesse Jackson's campaign.

He aboved up at a news conference sporting a Mondale button the morning after the Minnesotan's irritability victory.

"The Hart campaign comes out of this with a willingness to participate;" added George W. Sailade, state coordinator for the Colorado senator, it hadn't been for histe by mode in Jackson's candidacy, he said, most histels would have supported Mondale for his civil rights record.

But Sallade was wary of a "distilluzionment factor" among the Hart crowd, many of them young advantable at the distilluzion on the control of the cont at least half attending their first national convenien.

"I saw some tears. Well, in politics there's no room for tears. These people must be encouraged to stay in the game. Now, that's not hard for a prefessional like me," said the 61-year-old attorney and perennial candidate in normally Republican Washlenaw County.

Party Chairman Rick Wiener said in Mitchigan "the relationship between Hart, Mondale and Jackson delegates was clearly better than in a lot of states." He called the morning-after news conference "more than a symbolic gesture of ucity. The job of worthing out details in going to begin this morning, at breakfast."

"Are you picking ou the tabt" saked Sallado.

"Are you picking up the tab?" asked Sallade.
"Yea," said Wiener as Sallade smiled.

THINGS ARE tough in the Hart camp, and not just because of the senator's loss of the presidential nomination.

Hart's campaign debt is $4.7 million, and Hart supporters can expect a lot of mail from Sallade it off.

"Any candidate who has a $4.7-million debt hanging over his bead is in a difficult position, and Garyhas a 1986 Senate re-election campaign to face in a normally Republican state." Salinde staid.

"The same thing happened to George McGo-ern," be said, recalling that the 1972 presidential nominoe was defeated in his next South Dakota Senate campaign.

ON PAPER, the 183-member Michigan delega-tion had 78 Mondale votes, 49 for Eart and nine for Jackson with 16 technically uncommitted. The one-ballot nominating process showed 17 of the 19 uncommitted went to Mondale, one to Hart and one to Jackson. The final tally was 98, 50 and 17 executives.

and one to Jackson. The final tally was 98, 50 and 10 respectively. Whener, who had been careful to maintain oward neutrality, admitted he voted for Mondale. It was no surprise because the 37-year-old Lansing lawyer had been Gov. Blanchard's choice for chairman.

IT WAS a long time between victories for Donald Tucker, Franklin Village lawyer and Mondale dele-gate.

Introducing Manufacturers' new Flexible Term Loan.

Manufacturers Bank has another new idea that can save you money. We call it the Flexible Term Loan. Flexible, because your Term Loan. Flexible: because your interest rate is adjusted quarterly and is tied to an index based on the average yield on 6-month Treasury Bills. With a Manufacturers Flexible Term Loan, the length of the loan may change, but the payments will remain the same. That means you will have the echemican feet and the same.

but the payments will remain the same. That means you will have the advantage of easy budgeting. You'll have the advantage of saving money, too. You can save on interest if you pay your loan off early, because the faster you pay, the less interest you pay. And if interest rates go down, you can save even more. So a Manufacturers Flexible Term Loan can cost you considerably less than a conventional fixed rate loan. And, after all, helping people save for their dreams has been one of our ideals for over 50 years.

So whether you need an auto, boat, RV, or personal loan, stop by your nearest Manufacturers Bank office today and ask about our new Flexible Term Loans. We think they're another reason why you'll say, 'Manufacturers. That's my bank."
