Madonna College plans Saturday "samplers"

Saturday sampler classes for high school seniors or working adults contemplating college have been arranged by Madonna College for the fall term. Saturday classes for regular degree-bound students are also available. The classes include two which can be viewed on television.

Introduction to the Humanities includes a review of Maslow's hierarchy of human needs and Gutwirth's concepts of folk, classical and mass culture. It will be shown on WTVS-Channel 56 as well as many cable channels.

Four Saturday class meetings with Assistant Professor Ralph Olsen will provide for group discussion of the programs and evaluation.

The history of the Jewish people from the beginning to the present in 10 color television programs may be viewed on the same stations for general education required credit. The programs, which will be narrated by Abba Eben, will be discussed at four Saturday class meetings with adjunct professor Paul LaRose.

Tennis players called for '85 Maccabiah games

Regional qualifying tennis tryouts for the U.S. entry in the 1985 Maccabiah games will take place Friday through Sunday, Aug. 24-26, in Farmington Tennis Club.

The games afford young Jewish athletes the opportunity to share their heritage with Jews from around the world and to strengthen the bond of Judaism between historical Israel and the youth of today.

All participants must be over 14 years of age. Both pros and amateurs are eligible.

The local tennis club is one of 14 tournament sites in the country where semi-finalists will be determined for the national finals Jan. 9-13, 1985, in Philadelphia. These finalists will represent the U.S. in the 12th Maccabiah games in Israel, July 15-25.

Interested persons are asked to contact Sue Jarney, 476-3346.
