Piston magic at OCC

Members of the Detroit Pistons, along with a gym full of youngsters, gathered Tuesday morning at Oakland Community College in Farmington Hills to talk a little roundball — basketball, that is. Walker D. Russell (top) directed the clinic, espousing the proper techniques in the arts of passing, dribbling and shooting. At left, Walker D., a former OCC and Western Michigan standout as well as a former Piston (he's now with the Atlanta Hawks), demonstrated an unusual shooting form from half court. After a few warmup tosses, Walker D. drained a few for the appreciative audience. The clinic was sponsored by McDonald's and CKLW.
