

Orchestra auditions for new season

Livonia Youth Orchestra members were joined by professionals from the Detroit Symphony Orchestra when they held a Muso-Fest at Camp Tamarack near Ortonville this summer. Here violinists Ron Fischer and Ann Ourada talk with some of the Youth Orchestra string section. Auditions for the Youth Orchestra will be held Saturday, and Thursday, Aug. 30, Friday, Aug. 31, and Friday, Sept. 7, at Faith Lutheran Church, 3000 Five Mile, Livonia. For information, call 328-0548.

Art Academy elects officers

E. Jan Hartman was elected chairman of the board of governors of Cranbrook Academy of Art, held earlier this summer.

Other officers elected were: Leslie Rose, vice chairman; and Henry Hogan, treasurer.

At a reception at Saarman House following the annual meeting, presentations were made to Richard Thomas, John Gerard and Ernest Jones.

Thomas, head of the metalworking department since 1948, retired this year. He was presented with a trip to Helsinki to attend the opening there of "Design in America: The Cranbrook Vision 1925-1950."

His work is included in this major Cranbrook exhibition.

Gerard resigned as curator of collections. He and his family are moving to West Germany where he will continue his career as an artist. He was given three Balhazar Korab photographs of Cranbrook.

Jones was elected chairman emeritus of the board of governors. He has served on the board since 1958. He was given the Cranbrook Anniversary Suite, a portfolio of prints by the artists-in-residence at Cranbrook in honor of the Academy's 50th anniversary.

Hartman, a Birmingham resident, is also a member of the board of trustees of Cranbrook, chairman of the development committee for Cranbrook Educational Community and chairman of the bi-annual art and antique auction of the Academy.
