The big clash

Interesting match-ups highlight 2nd week

By Chris McCosky and Brad Emons staff writers

Things are beginning to take shape in the world of high school football. Week 2 will tell a lot more about some of the teams who pulled surprise wins or stumbled in their opener.

Is Garden City for real? Only powerful Dearborn Fordson, Friday night opponent, knows for sure. Cal Catholic Central and Redford Union rebound from disappointing opening day losses?

And how about Livonia Franklin, Livonia Stevenson and North Farmington? Can they build upon their impressive opening day wins?

Some area battles are taking shape — Stevenson at Franklin, Bishop Borgess at RU, Fordson at Garden City and Walled Lake Central at North.

Then there's the Plymouth Salem-Plymouth Canton affair.

The prognosticators picked well in their first week — McCosky picked 10 of 13 correct, while Emons was 9-4.

Here goes Week No. 2:

LIVONIA CHURCHILL at ANN ARBOR HURON (7:30 p.m. Friday): The Chargers may still be reeling from their 20-15 last-minute loss to Franklin. If anyone can rally them, it's quarterback John Stoltzlander, who riddled the Patriots for 241 total yards. Huron, meanwhile, is coming off a 13-6 loss to Lansing.

Pick — Both agree, Huron's the victor.

CLARENCEVILLE at CLARENCEVILLE (7:30 p.m. Friday): The Trojans held tough for a half before losing last week to Class D playoff qual-

grid predictions

Waterford Our Lady, 18-17. Clarenceville can run, but can they throw? Cranbrook, meanwhile, lost 28-7 to Cleveland (Ohio) University School.

Pick — Emons sticks with Clarenceville. McCosky likes the Trojans.

DEARBORN FORDSON at GARDEN CITY (7:30 p.m. Friday): Fordson is tough to deal with, but Garden City took care of one of Fordson's league foes last week in Wayne Memorial, 33-20. Can the Cougars score points again?

Pick — Fordson is the choice, both say.

PONTIAC CENTRAL at WESTLAND JOHN GLENN (7:30 p.m. Friday): The Rockets steamrolled Belleville last week, while millage-district Pontiac took care of Madison Heights Bishop Foley, 15-4. The question remains: Is Central better than Belleville?

Plymouth Canton at Plymouth Canton (7:30 p.m. Friday): CEP's Canton has given a more talented Salem crew a tussle during the last two years.

Is this the year that Canton breaks the ice? Can the Chiefs control the ball like they did against Bentley?

Pick — McCosky says Canton can. Emons goes with the Rockets.

REDFORD THURSTON vs. WALLED LAKE WESTERN (7:30 p.m. Friday at W.L. Central): The undermanned Eagles scored 16 points in a loss to Gibraltar Carlson last week.

Western lost last week to Pontiac Northern, 30-17. Who knows?

Pick — Emons says Western avenges last year's upset loss. McCosky seconds the motion.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL vs. YPSILANTI (7:30 p.m. Friday at Bentley): The Shamrocks got going too late last week against Traverse City in a galling 21-14 loss at the Silverdome. Ypsi, meanwhile, lost its ninth straight game last week to Lansing Eastern, 20-14. CC has no Eric Bell to contend with this year either.

Pick — Emons and McCosky say CC picks up the pace in a big way.

BISHOP BORGESS vs. REDFORD UNION (7:30 p.m. Friday at Kraft Field): Borgess coach Gary Cook was unhappy with his defense in a 27-20 victory over Riverview last week. This is an intriguing game with a couple of good runners, Don Angel of RU and speed-burner Fred Owens of Borgess, locking horns.

Pick — Emons and McCosky don't smell upset, favored Borgess prevails.

LIVONIA STEVENSON at LIVONIA FRANKLIN (1 p.m. Saturday): Stevenson won a thriller last year on a last-second pass. The Patriots showed last week they can run and throw, while Stevenson coach Jack Reardon pulled one out of the hat last week in a 14-13 win over a much bigger RU squad.

Both prognosticators agree, it's Franklin's turn.

FARMINGTON at FARMINGTON HARRISON (1 p.m. Saturday): The Hawks scored at will last week in a 42-9 rout at Westfield. Farmington, meanwhile, scored a 14-13 win over Southfield. Only coaches can stop Harrison against the Falcons, who hope to make it a game.

Pick — Harrison walks away with another win, the prep pickers agree.

WALLED LAKE CENTRAL at N. FARMINGTON (1 p.m. Saturday): N's Central supposed to win the Lakes Division of the Western Lakes Conference? They just got by Milford last week 10-0. North, meanwhile, opened with an exciting 28-20 win at Plymouth Salem at quarterback Eric Engel adeptly mixed things up.

Pick — McCosky goes with the home team. Emons disagrees.

LIVONIA BENTLEY at WARREN TOWER (1:30 p.m. Saturday): The Bulldogs lost 14-9 to Plymouth Canton last week and will be hard pressed to beat Warren Tower, which posted an 8-1 record last season.

Pick — Tower wins again in 1984, both say.

ST. AGATHA vs. DEARBORN ST. ALPHONSUS (7:30 p.m. Saturday at Kraft): This young Aggie team can only get better. They have a speedy backfield with the likes of Fred Allen, D.C. Miller and Kevin Bell, who rushed for 123 yards in a 42-0 opening night rout of Riverdale. Alphonsus, meanwhile, is coming off a 13-0 victory over Hamtramck.

Pick — Aggie makes it two straight. It's unanimous.
