

Heavy Mover

Despite gunfire and 110-degree heat, Marine Cpl. Ronald R. Kalsar operated his earth mover during operation Gallant Eagle. The exercise took place at the Marine Corps Air-Ground Combat Center in the Mojave desert in southern California and involved 10,000 Marines. Kalsar is the son of Ruth Dearth of Farmington Hills.

Madonna plans October Fest

Oldies but goodies will be featured at the October Fest planned for Madonna College, Livonia, Saturday, Oct. 6. "Honey Radio," WJMD, will be on campus to broadcast live throughout the day for students, parents and friends as well as college alumni who will be celebrating their reunion weekend.

The radio station's 1957 Chevrolet "Sunshine" will serve as the station's broadcast booth from campus.

Beginning at 10 a.m. food, games and dancing will be available under the big tent. Three live bands are scheduled: Bonnie and the Working Girls from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. Mod Kav and the Polysters 1-4 p.m. and Jeff and the Al-lanics 4-7 p.m. There is no general admission charge.

At 4 p.m. the Gallejo Polka Dance Ensemble will perform in the College Activities Center. There is an admission charge of $3 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, $1 for children under 12. It will be followed by an Alumni Memorial Mass in the College Chapel at 6 p.m.

Other events scheduled include hot air tethered balloon rides free, courtesy of ReMax Realty of Livonia, and hayrides.

Alumni will begin their reunion activities the previous evening when they join with the Student Government in a dinner dance. It will especially recognize graduates of the years 1949, 1954, 1959, 1964, 1974 and 1979 and reservations are required. A general membership meeting of the College Alumni Association is scheduled for at 12:30 p.m. Saturday. The President of the College, Sister Mary Francilene, will hold an informal coffee hour with alumni at 10 a.m. and students and faculty will meet in a basketball game at 1 p.m.

The public is welcome at all events. Madonna is at 1-98 and Levan, Livonia.

Courses offered for health staff

Special courses and seminars are being offered during October and November at Madonna College which have special interest to hospital staffs. Introduction to Chemical Dependency and Youth will meet five Wednesdays, beginning Oct. 3. It will cover addiction, effect on children and families, prevention and intervention in a course taught by Fairlane Health Services (FHS).

Hemodynamic Assessment (AACN accredited) will meet all day on Saturday, Oct. 13.

Computers and Nursing will meet all day on Wednesday, Oct. 17, introducing computer applications to nursing.

For information or registration for the above courses, call the Madonna College office of continuing education, 591-5188. Madonna is on I-96 and Levan, Livonia.
