The Smith Performing Arts Theatre, on Orchard Ridge Campus, Oakland Community College, presents award-winning composer, arranger and performer Joe LoDuca in concert at 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 12.

An optional dinner, prepared and served by the college's culinary arts students precedes the concert at 6:30 p.m.

Tickets for the dinner must be bought by Friday, Oct. 5, through the box office on campus. The dinner and theater combination is $15. Tickets for the concert are $5 advance sale, or $7 at the door.

LoDuca is described as a "brilliant composer of fusion and classical works. His sustain and vibrato in fusion are exceptional, providing a swirling dynamic equilibrium of sound."

The guitarist has won several awards, including the Matisse TV-Music Award which has been given to him for the past two years by Oakland County.

He has composed and recorded the music theme for "Late Night America" and has composed and arranged the movie scores for "The XYZ Movers"

Joe LoDuca

and "The Evil Dead."

LoDuca has been featured performer of several Detroit Montreux Festivals and will be joined for this concert by his group comprised of Gary Schunk on keyboards, Ken Kellet playing bass, Tom Starr performing on drums and percussionist Lawrence Frantangelo.
