

Attention juniors! Tourney sign-up on

By Brad Emmons
staff writer

Entries are expected to surpass the 200 mark for the third annual Open Junior Bowling Tournament, Dec. 27-28, at Wonderland Lanes in Livonia.

Tournament chairman Ernie Jones is optimistic that last year's total of 148 will be shattered.

"It's coming up fast, but it's safe to say that we'll pass 200," said Jones, a member of Livonia Post 3941 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, one of the tournament sponsors. "Last year we doubled our total from the year before."

With the help of Wonderland Lanes, the Observer Newspapers and Ken Kosick of Pro Am Bowling and Trophy Sales of Livonia, the tournament has become one of the top junior bowling events in western Wayne County.

COMPETITION is broken down into four age divisions for boys and girls: A, 15-17 years; B, 13-14; C, 11-12; and D, 8-10.

The entry fee is $3 per bowler (deadline Saturday, Dec. 22). The fee covers three games of bowling, shoes and a complimentary gift.

Squad times (preference is final) are available at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 27, or Friday, Dec. 28.

Checks should be made payable to: Livonia Post 3941, V.F.W., 29155 W. Seven Mile Road, Livonia, MI 48152. (See application form).

Wonderland Lanes, located at 28455 Plymouth Road in Livonia, will provide automatic scoring for the second straight year.

Mohacsi cited by Olympic group

Mary Mohacsi, the former Livonia school teacher who has served as the Detroit Bowling Queen for seven years, is now in line for the highest of the many honors she has received in her sports book career.

She has been nominated for the American Olympic Committee's Sports Woman of the Year Award. Her selection was based on her outstanding performance of winning the singles title in the recent International Amateur Bowling tournament where she competed against bowlers from 15 different countries. She will be featured in the forthcoming issue of the Olympian, official publication of the U.S. Olympic committee.

PLYMOUTH BOWL Jim Mitchell, who drives from his home in Farmington Hills each week to bowl in Plymouth, hit the high point of his career last week when he posted a 299 game in a 730 series in the twilight league. It was his second 700 series of the year as he rolled a 725 in November.

in the pocket by W.W. Edgar

WONDERLAND A new high was reached in the classic this week when six new members were admitted to the 700 club. This brings the year's total thus far to more than 60 members.

RON Puhl showed the way with a 747 that included a 265 middle game. The others in line were Tony Clifton with 729, Robert Wilcox with 720, Larry Brandt with 719, Bill Funke with 718 and Nick Colucci with 713.

MERRI-BOWL For the first time this season there was a tie for high scoring honors in the Friendship Mixed League. When the final pin fell John Hurley and Bob Rose were deadlocked at 279. Kathy Wick was high in the ladies classic with a 278 in a 574 series.

WOODLAND High scores were the order this past week with the result that two more members were admitted to the 700 club. Bill Pietrzyk abowed the way with 715 and Ric Evenson had a 248 opener in a 708. Betty Kiaki was high among the ladies with a 245 single game.

BEL-AIRE Jeff Naboznya had the most satisfying night of his bowling career when he inserted a perfect game in a 698 series in the plumbers league. The only thing that would have pleased him more was to get the 700 series that he missed by two pins.

In the Our Lady of Sorrows league, Tim Tukey had the high game of 278. GARDEN LANES Gerald Blyss left the No. 3 pin that robbed him of a perfect game. His 299 helped him post a high 640 series. In the St. Latus league, Ed Kropurnick showed the way with a 367 game in a 640 series.

SUPER BOWL Bob Woolley paced the senior citizens league with an opening game of 223 in a 618 series.

Redford Royals crush Fraser

Scott Wolter scored two goals to power the Redford Royals past Fraser, 7-1, in a Great Lakes Junior B hockey clash last week at the Redford Ice Arena.

Playing before 250 fans, Royals dominated from start to finish. Joining Wolter in the scoring circle were Joe Burton, Tim McWain, Darrin Hotts, Bill Trishak and Vaughn Watson. Hotts and Matt Murlack each added 2 assists for the winners, who lead the Great Lakes circuit with an 11-1-3 record. (Fraser is 8-4-3.) Royals goalie Dan Gelfort was outstanding in the nets, stopping 23 shots.
