

New OCC Drama Group Produces 'Summertree'

A new theatre group has developed on the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College, 27055 Orchard Lake Road (Off I-96) Headed and directed by Robert White, 26, and Eric Barr, instructor, the Orchard Ridge Summer Theatre opens with its first production in the form of Ben Corcoran's drama, "Summertree."

The drama is a stirring statement of the current times involving a boy and his family during the "hippy" period of "the 60's." The play is warmly humorous, giving a view of both sides of the generation gap.

Starring in the production are Sal Sisto and Nanci Whitefield, who portray the mother and father. Eric Barr plays the boy, who faces draft induction.

His girlfriend is portrayed by Jackie Collins. Playing the induction soldier is Dennis Broadhead. Drew Falk plays the younger brother.

"Look Back" will be directed by Ron Wresinski, a senior at Northwood Institute of Indiana whose future plans include a career in film production. He also directed "Pride and Prejudice," "Midsummer's Night Dream," and "The Sandbox."

Curta for all performances is 8:30 p.m.

Players Plan Spring Show

The regular meeting of the Farmington Players will be held at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 22, in the Players' Barn on 12 Mile. Farmington Plans will be announced for the group's spring show, and names of volunteers for standing committees will be taken.
