Prints, big shirt, color the hot news

THEN, WE will look into the influence of the big shirt, with some of the best that we have seen patterned after men's pajamawear. The oversized shirt is everywhere, from shirt dresses and shirt jackets to big, unconstructed box short jackets and the important duster coat. Even cropped cardigan jackets and the vests will be worn over longer shirts. Sweaters are "stretched" and cropped for wear over skinny skirts and leggings.

COLOR IS being applied lavishly this season to add razzmatazz to collections of classic jackets, sweaters and trousers. For fun, neon brights will give Halley's Comet a real run for its money in terms of being spectacular. Choose orange, pimento, lime, slicker yellow, fuchsia, cobalt blue or jade green, either in accessories or a major piece such as a shirt or sweater, and you've accomplished your spring '85 look. Totally whimsical carioica brights (remember Carmen Miranda?) make the season more exciting and will provide humorous accents to any wardrobe.
