Betty Love (above) conducts the Farmington Musicales Handbell Choir which rehearses in Nardin Park United Methodist Church (above right) getting ready for the musicale's first spring concert.

Wednesday. One of the numbers on the playlist is "Remembrance," a composition by Love.

Handbell choir rings in spring

Farmington Musicales's first spring concert will feature the Musicales Handbell Choir at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday, April 3 in Farmington Hills Branch Library, on 12 Mile, east of Farmington Road.

The choir is made up of Sharon Cardoza, Judy Dauterman, Nancy Davis, Barbara Dillon, Carolyn Dinsen, Kim Doelker, Phillis Letich, Carolee McDaniel, Beverly Notestine, Nan Taylor and Marilyn Wallas.

The choir is directed by Betty Love and accompanied by Maxine Zeitz.

Guest soloist for the afternoon program is cellist Kathy Wolfe.

Wolfe has selected "Le Cygne" by C. Saint Seans, "Après un Reve" by G. Faure and selections from the G Major Unaccompanied Suite by J. S. Bach for her portion of the program.

The Musicales Handbells will play "Fantasy for a Festival Service" by E. Hunter, "Air from Orfeo" by C. Gluck and "Donna Nobis Pacem" in memory of musicale member Sue McCallum.

Love will conduct her own composition, "Remembrance," in memory of musicale member Shirley Strey.

To conclude the program, the bells will ring Prelude by Rachmaninoff, and "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" by J. S. Bach.

There is no admission charge. Babysitting is available by reservation, by calling Flo Kaston, 476-0110.

The Farmington Musicales is affiliated with Michigan Federation of Music Clubs and National Federation of Music Clubs.

Shoot-Out brings Easter Seal pledges

A total of $910.25 has been forwarded to Easter Seal Society of Oakland County by the staff of Farmington Training Center that was raised when 74 students participated in "Basketball Shoot-Out for Easter Seals."

Mary Stetten's class gathered the largest sum, $249, that came in from pledgers who put their money on the basketball-throwing acumen of the students.

This week an assembly will be called to publicly recognize the high pledgers. For pledges of more than $100, the prize is a backpack. Those who brought in more than $30 will get a basketball. Those who brought in more than $10 will get a Frisbee, and all participants will receive a hat.

Mercy lists spring term offerings

Mercy Center's spring term runs from April 13 to June 10, offering a variety of swim, fitness and special classes.

Among the special classes this term are advanced lifesaving and CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation).

Open swimming, lap swimming, swim classes for all levels of expertise, synchronized swim and exercises in the water are offered in the pool.

For fitness, Trim-Gym-Swim, Trim 'n' Swim, aerobic conditioning and open gym sessions are offered.

A complete brochure will be mailed on request by calling the center, 476-8010. The center is at 28600 11 Mile.

We Take Your Injuries Personally.

When you reach out to a personal injury attorney for help, you expect personal attention, and care. After all, you are a person, not a case number.

Our legal staff works hard to make certain you are fairly compensated for any financial loss and suffering which you have sustained due to the negligence of others.

At our firm, we deal with people instead of just "cases." And our fee is contingent upon recovery.
