

Plymouth Bride To Live In S.C.

Mr. and Mrs. David Allen Stertzbach, recently married in Redford Township's Temple Baptist Church, will make their home in Greenville, S.C.

The bride, formerly Rita Bundy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Bundy of Harding Avenue, Plymouth, will be senior at Bob Jones University. Her husband is a May graduate of the university, in Bible, and will work on a master's degree in pastoral studies.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stertzbach of Canton, Ohio. The Rev. V. L. Martin of Pontiac assisted at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN, which she designed and made, was of silk organza over a peau de soie skirt, with scattered appliques of Alencon lace set with seed pearls and berilla auroras. The bodice was of Alencon lace with matching pearls and auroras, and there were appliques on the chapel-length, double Watteau train, and on the Alencon lace pearly which held her four-tier illusion veil.

Mrs. Carol Davis of Garden City, as matron of honor, wore an old-fashioned style pink voile dress with a lace collar and cuffs on the puffed sleeves.

Karen Porter, Marla Kolodziejczyk, Linda Lowman and Mrs. J. J. Stertzbach, as bridesmaids, wore matching gowns in yellow, peach, pale blue and orchid. The flower girl, Dalia Bundy, wore a matching white dress.

Dwayne Bundy was the ring bearer.

KENNETH BANTUM, was best man, and Dan Stertzbach, Robert Stertzbach, Rodney Stertzbach and Richard Haskell were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of ice blue silk linen with a long-sleeved lace coat and matching accessories. Mrs. Stertzbach wore a soft pink, short-sleeved crepe dress with a pink mantilla lace bodice and stand-up collar.

A dinner for 150 guests was held in the Hillside Inn, Plymouth. The couple left for a trip to Martha's Vineyard Island, where they are spending the summer.

Will Live In Belleville

Linda F. Hollifield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Hollifield of Westland, became the bride of Howard J. Puchalsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Puchalsky of Garden City, in a ceremony in St. Catharine Church, Dearborn Heights.

The Rev. Father Romp performed the ceremony. The bride wore a traditional gown of lace over tulle, with long lace sleeves, a square neckline and a chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was held by a cop of pearls trimmed with sequins. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, with carnations and gladiolus.

CAROL SCHMIDT, as maid of honor, and Nancy Carter and Peggy Bee, as bridesmaids, wore mint green chiffon over tulle gowns, with straight skirts gathered in the back, short puffed sleeves trimmed with daisies, and scoop necklines. They carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

Jackie Hollifield, the bride's sister, was the flower girl.

JACK SALISBURY, the bridegroom's cousin, was best man. The ushers were Robert Wojcik, Joe Huber and Timothy Puchalsky, the bridegroom's brother.

A reception was held in St. Mel Hall. The couple will reside in Belleville, following a honeymoon trip to Northern Michigan.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER wore a two-piece pink silk suit, and the bridegroom's mother wore a mini green silk and linen dress.

The reception was held in the church, and the couple left for a trip through New England. They will live in Wilmington.

The bride is a high school English teacher at Unionville, Pa. She received a BA from the University of Michigan. Her husband is an industrial arts teacher at Concord High School, Wilmington. He received his BS from Military State College, and a M.Ed. degree from Ohio University.

Maureen E. Walsh Weds

Maureen E. Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walsh of Lyndon Avenue, Livonia, became the bride of William D. Ullman, in a ceremony in St. Genevieve Catholic Church July 24. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ullman of Detroit.

The Rev. F.A. Welber officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride wore an A-line gown of ivory peau de soie, with a high stand-up collar, seed pearls and Alencon lace trim and long sleeves. Her train was cathedral-length. A crown of leaves studded with pearls held her elbow length veil of four layers of silk netting. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, and a white orchid.

KATHERINE WALSH, the bride's sister, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Patricia Ollis of Novi, Mrs. Judith Noel, of Detroit, and Christine Prankl of Chicago, as bridesmaids, wore Empire styled dresses of aqua chiffon with heavy white crocheted trim around the stand-up collars and cuffs. They carried colonial bouquets of multicolored roses and carnations.

Gary Loncharich of Detroit was best man. Larry Ullman, the bridegroom's brother, Dale Noel and Kevin Walsh, the bride's brother, were the ushers.

Following a reception in the Armenian Hall, Southfield, the couple left for a wedding trip to New York City and Baltimore.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Western Michigan University, and the bridegroom is attending Lawrence Technical Institute. He was discharged from the USMC in July, 1969, after serving in Vietnam. They will live in Detroit.

MRS. WILLIAM D. ULLMAN (Maureen Walsh)

Couple Wed In Delaware

In a ceremony in the First Unitarian Church of Wilmington, Del., Helena Billiter of Royersford, Pa., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford G. Maples of Salt Road, Plymouth, became the bride of Brooke Davis Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rupert Miller of Pottstown, Pa.

The Rev. William E. Gardner officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Lorna MacDaniels was the organist. The church was decorated with white gladiolus and blue Majestic daisies for the candlelight rites.

The bride's stepfather gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white and silver brocade with long sleeves, an empire waist and a long train. A single garland held her white elbow-length veil and she carried an Edwardian bouquet of gardenias.

HER ATTENDANTS, Mrs. Fred Germaine of Grand Blanc, as matron of honor, and Glenda Marie Maples of Plymouth, the bride's sister, wore identical blue and silver sleeveless, empire-waisted gowns of brocade. They carried small Edwardian bouquets of white carnations and blue daisies.
