

Opting for traditional wedding trappings, this bride and bridegroom make an elegant pair. He's wearing a black wool tuxedo designed by Yves St. Laurent for After Six Formal. It features notch lapels with satin piping and a matching wool vest. Accessories by After Six. The bride wears an Alfred Angelo gown designed by Michele Piccione. Its deep V-neckline is trimmed with Venice lace and Cluny lace ruffles. Venice lace again appears in the wrist-length sleeves. The Victorian style taffeta apron skims along several rows of Cluny lace ruffles which accent the hemline. The gown retails for about $505. Its matching headpiece by Tina Michele sells for about $90. The tuxedo is available for rental.
