EDWIN P. REED, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Redding of Farmington Hills and a 1984 graduate of Clarenceville High School, was appointed by U.S. Rep. William Broomfield to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. Edwin reports for summer training July 2. He will graduate with the Class of 1989.

A GOOD NUMBER of Beahan students have qualified and entered the Midwest Talent Search. Students in sixth, seventh and eighth grade are eligible if they have scored at the 95th percentile or better on either the total math or total verbal portions of a national standardized in-grade achievement test administered in the local school district. The purpose of the search is to identify those students who have high mathematical and/or verbal abilities and to offer such students additional opportunities. The identification instrument is the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) normally administered to high school juniors and seniors. The following students from Beahan took the Scholastic Aptitude Test this year and did remarkably well: Theodore Baumer, Amy Cox, Melissa Kendall, Andrea Luboway, Shawn Matthews, Darius Mohraban, Karen Neyer, Maria Platon, David Podorsck, Stephen Rahaim, Christopher Sawicki, Anne Scullen and Christopher West.
