

Writer's small t's tell tall tales

Dear Mrs. Green: I recently attended one of your min-icitaises on graphology and was very in-terested. I plan to attend a class in the Tetretter. I pins to answer fault. In your class, you gave a brief read-ing of my handwriting, but seemed hesitant about my "t" bars. I'm writing # Jonger letter with the hopes of a more "thorough analysis. LT.,

Dear L.T.: You are absolutely right! I was hesi-tant about those "t" bars, because most authors in the field of graphology do not interpret them. So I had to do a lit-

When considered with the total pic-ture of your tegithe handwriting, they suggest a fatalistic eatis. It appears for how more or less regited your-tually many things hold interest for However, the tad of culture is suggested. Ac-you are interested in knowing your-You are interested in knowing yourgraphology Lorene 🖣 Green riclass, you 1 nn

While we all need recognition and acceptance, you appear to have a strong need for it at this particular time and may not be hearing it from those around you. YOU ARE security minded and place some value on tradition. Howev-er, it does seem quite possible you have disregarded much of the male authori-ty influence from early life. You are aware of the accepted behavior of your own social set and will act accordingly. Independent in some areas, you want to be in control of your life. You dislike Your thinking pattern is methodical and logical. You do not depend on Intui-tion for your answers. Nor are guillible. In new situations you are often hesi-tant. Some procressination is here. Also some worry and a bit of insecurity. However, your mind is woll-orgo-nized and good with details. Once you get into a project you have the determi-nation to see it through. And vitality is here for the things that are important to you.

Hope to see you in class this fall!

itope to see you in class this fall: If you have a question about your handwriting write to Mrs. Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist in cure of this newspaper. Please use a full sheet of white, unlined paper writing in the first person singular. Age, signature and handedness are helpful. And feedback is always wel-come.

Seminary lists summer offerings

HEALTH INSURANCE INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP

American Community

Mutual Insurance Company

Founded 1933

M. Daley Hill

127 E. Main Street • Northville • 349-8680

Home Office – Livonia, Michigan

Phone or Write General Agent:

10

1.1

477-2343 ORCHARD LK. RD. AT 10 MILE

June 28 is registration deadline for one evening and three daytime courses, July 8-12, in St. John's Seminary sum-mer session in Plymouth. Students may register by calling St. John's at 453-6200 weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4 pm register by calling SL. John's at 433-6200 weckdays between 9 a.m. and 4 m.m. "Introduction To Old Testament Studies," is a two-week evening course. The Rev. Jerome T. Walkh, associate vering sessions beginning Monday. July 8. Our week daytime courses beginning function of the Rev. Thomas function of Casholic Campus Minister for Gasholic Cage Interfaith Com-munity, will present an overview of the detaphology. Baking and Abbio function of Casholic Campus Minister function of Casholic Campus Minister and Albion College Interfaith Com-ment specification of Casholic Campus Minister function of Casholic Campus Minister function of Casholic Campus Minister and Albion College Interfaith Com-ment specification of Casholic Campus Minister function of Casholic Casholic Casholic Casholic Casholic function of Casholic Cas œ., 13 offer an overview of contemporary medical ethics in the Roman Catholic tradition. Expectally useful for pastoral tourselors, the course will develop the bistory and present state of the disc-pline; medical-moral theology, and Christian perspectives; and contempo-rary moral issues in medicine and health care. Sister Izzo, adjunct faculty member, will focus on the personal growth of the minister and the process through an ex-pioration of solf and of issues experi-enced by every ministering person.

A

Explorers receive grant

The Exploring Division, Clinton Val-ley Council, Boy Scouts of America received a $64,000 grant in support of the program's purposes and budget. This money contributes to the expan-

This money contributes to the expan-sion of the Exploring program, the young adult program of the Boy Scouts of America. Explorers are young men and wom-en ages 14-20 who join Exploring Posts that offer career, citizensible, social, service, outdoor and fitness activities.

474-6610

9:30-9:00

VALUES TO 45.00

FARMINGTON STORE ONLY

NO CHECKS PLEASE

Rozanne D'Ascenzo, who won the won-in the Michigan auditors for a spot on "Dance Fever," a television dance competition. She'il be competing Miss St. Clair Shores who she dance Michigan dance couples Were cho Shore Mining the Utile of Miss Farm-ington, D'Ascenzo has traveled, arrat-modeled through Patricia Steve Miss Shores Who She has modeled through Patricia Steve Steve Miss Shores Who She has modeled through Patricia Steve Miss She Miss She Miss Farm-modeled through Patricia Steve Miss Miss Ascenze Miss Steve Miss She Miss She Miss Farm-modeled through Patricia Steve Miss She Miss Farm-modeled through Patricia Steve Miss Ste

D'ASCENZO 15 also working with the Miss Farmington Pageant commit-tee this spring, whose members are now in rehearsals, workshops and meetings with the 1985 contenders working up to pageant night, set this year for Wednesday, July 17, in Vlad-mir's. She is in charge of the music, the choreography, the staging and the cus-toming of the pageant's traditional opening number that is performed by the contenders and simultaneously in-troduces them to the pageant audience. "All of the Dance Fever shows we see on TV are taped," D'Ascenzo said,

"and sometimes two or three of them are taped in one day." She and Geopper will be called to Los Angeles, Calif., for the taping "any time between the last week in July and the first week in September," she said of the all-expense paid trip they wan. "Then depending on whatever the scheduling is for that week, and if we win, we might go into another compet-tion immediately. Or we could be called back at a later time." Television viewers might not see DrAscenzo and Geopper on the screen until late October or early November.

Enrollment open for tots

Mayfair Co-operative Nursery School, located at 30450 Farmington Road, is currently accepting enroll-ment for students in both morning and alternoon classes. The co-operative nursery school offers parents and children the opportu-nity to participate together in the child's preschool education through the parent's active role in the daily class routine and in the function of the school

You have a second secon

Close to 1,000 elementary school children got a lesson on fire safety and burn awareness this month, a lesson Parmington Area Jaycees deemed so successful the club plans to repeat the

 $\mathbf{t}^{\mathbf{4}}$

e in the Broadway

tin Diev

Phones ($55-1730)

32732 Northwestern (just south of 14 mile)

Farmington Hills

