Y salutes volunteer

Farmington Hills resident Robert E. Jones was honored for his outstanding contribution to the Farmington Area YMCA at a special luncheon meeting of the Detroit Metropolitan YMCA board of directors.

He was presented with a plaque for his accomplishment by Marlon Corwell, planning manager for Ford Motor Co.

Jones, who retired in 1983 after 44 years of employment as a sales manager for Continental Baking Co., is a fitness instructor at the Farmington Branch, and has also participated in many fund-raising projects.

"I also help with fitness screening and assist at the desk, anything they need my help with," said Jones, who contributes 15-20 hours per week in volunteer effort.

"When I retired I knew I was going to have to find something to do, so I began coming here to the Farmington YMCA."

"The benefits are staying healthy and enjoying the association with the people here. It's a great group of individuals."

According to YMCA vice president Gary Ursell, the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit is supported by 625 volunteers who have dedicated themselves to helping others. This year 975,000 for $30 for a couple payable with registration in the center on Farmington Road north of 10 Mile.
