Sculpture dedicated at Marian High

A seven-foot bronze sculpture, "Carlitas," by Pamela Stump Walsh, was installed and dedicated at Marian High School last month. The sculpture, outside the front entrance, is of four female figures representing the four grade levels at Marian in attitudes of study, service, prayer and play. The word "Carlitas" is love of God and of each other. Marian is a four-year girls' high school founded by the Sister, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in 1959, 7225 Lahser, Birmingham. Walsh has taught sculpture for the Cranbrook Educational Community since 1969. She attended Kingswood School and Cranbrook Academy of Art, studied at Oakland University and has bachelor's and master's degrees in design from University of Michigan. Her work is in more than 500 private and institutional collections.

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION!!

We have already sold 20% of the new homes to be built. Our choicest of locations in Troy could be the reason. Then again, it could be our insistence on quality materials and workmanship throughout the home.
