

cable connection

By Lark Samouelian
special writer

Please remember that the Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission has its office in Farmington City Hall to be easily accessible for residents within the cable franchise area. The cable franchise area encompasses Farmington, Novi and Farmington Hills. Our office oversees the franchise contractually as well as encourages community access programming. Metrovision of Oakland County is your cable company. The appropriate communication procedure is to first contact them by telephone, walk into the office or write. Per the cable franchise ordinance, they must respond to subscriber complaints or requests for service within 48 hours after receipt of the complaint or request. If you do not hear from them, contact our Commission office and we will help you. 474-1918. Either Lark Samouelian or Judy Kral will be available to help answer questions.

We also have many shows being produced from our office as well as at the studio. A wonderful and interesting way to become used to the new television opportunities would be to volunteer to be a production researcher. This person would review the newspapers and make contacts in the community appropriate for the show's subject matter. The hours would be flexible to meet your schedule. This position is perfect for someone who needs or must remain at home or for someone desiring to get out and begin to meet and link with people again. We look forward to meeting you. Call us for more information at 474-1918.

North students chalk up kudos

NORTH NOTES: At the year-end All Sports Program, coaches at North Farmington High School named Patti Kozicki as the 1984-85 Raider Girl recipient and Brian Hood as the Raider Cup recipient. These awards, the highest presented to an athlete, are awarded annually to a senior athlete who has excelled in athletics while making outstanding contributions to the school program. Patti was selected by coaches from among a group of senior athletes that included Beth Byrne, Colleen Carey, Chris Carrier, Suzette Greenberg, Stephanie Hockema, Alissa Mummett, Susan Shiffra and Debbie Spahn. Brian was chosen by coaches from among a group of senior athletes that included Mark Anders, James Benda, Tom Cotter, Steve Deighton, Dale Elenbaas, Eric Engel, Chris Heintzman, Pat Henderson, Scott Knoll, Shawn Lyon, Mike McBeth, Scott Murman and Carl Yagolino.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION: North students fared well in the 1985 Michigan Industrial Education Society competition (M.I.E.S.). The purpose of the M.I.E.S. is to encourage and recognize fine craftsmanship in the field of Industrial Education in the State of Michigan. Senior Daniel Damiani earned a first-place award for his V-8 engine. Other top finishers were, Junior Joe Juliano, seventh place for his crank; Junior Scott Hutchison, ninth place for a two cycle engine; sophomore Chris Basso, a sixth-place finish for a cannon.

TRIVIAL PURSUIT: The North team of Tom Atkins, Dave Murley, Mark Aune and Doug Wood, for the second year in a row, earned first-place honors in recent competition.

OLYMPICS OF THE MIND: At a recent state competition in East Lansing, the North team of Eric Harlow, Dan Mattien, Tammy Spengler, Terry Spengler, Jason Schatzel and Dan Moti-slewicz earned a fourth place position.

FORENSICS: North's multiple "Pip-It" performed by Bill Neuberger, Jackie Ache, Rich Mayrand, Emily Warnick and Teresa Power, placed in the top ten multiples in Michigan. Christy Hicks ranked in the top five with her radio performance.

SENIOR RECOGNITION: Each year at North, the faculty nominates six outstanding seniors to be considered for the Kathryn Sevin Memorial Award and two American Legion Awards. The Kathryn Sevin Award was established in 1964 to honor Miss Kathryn Sevin, who died before graduating with North's first graduating class, by her family. The awards are presented to seniors who display leadership, ability, along with a willingness and desire to serve and have excellent academic records. The six nominees voted upon by the faculty and senior class were Scott Knoll, Suzette Greenberg, Debbie Spahn, James Benda, Stephanie Hockema and Colleen Carey. Congratulations are in order for James Benda, recipient of the Kathryn Sevin Award and Colleen Carey and Scott Knoll, recipients of the American Legion Awards.

Summer day camps set at county parks

Waterford Oaks County Park will be the site for "Life, Be In It" Recreation Activities Day Camps beginning July 8 and running throughout the summer. The six camps, scheduled in one-week sessions, give participants a chance to experience various summer activities. Weeklong sessions begin July 8, 15, 22, 29 and Aug. 5, 12.

The cost is $45 per child, per week and $42.50 for each additional child in the family. The camp runs from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. each day with transportation available from designated sites.

Registration continues until the Monday two weeks before each session's starting date. For more information, call 858-4946.

Something old Something new.
Swingers are something
from Tell City.

Tell City recreates one of the best things about the good old days, the swinger in Great-Grandmother's parlor. The same charm, the same relaxing back and forth movement of a front porch glider. Now with Tell City, care and quality are built in. Here are swingers just like the old-timers, only better. These are Tell City.
